Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On April 12, 2012, Lakeland Industries, Inc. (the "Company") signed Amendment No. 4 to the Loan and Security Agreement with TD Bank, N.A. ("Amendment No. 4) which does the following:

Reclassified $3.0 million of the outstanding balance on the revolving credit into a term loan, principal payable $25,000 monthly from May 2012 to June 2013, monthly payments of $37,500 thereafter through maturity of June 30, 2014. Interest will be at LIBOR plus 2.75%.

Interest rate pricing on the revolving credit balance at LIBOR plus 2.50% so long as the funded debt/EBITDA ratio is greater than 3.0%.

Unrecorded mortgages on the Company's domestic owned real-estate.

Provides for a borrowing base sublimit based on a formula applied to eligible inventory and receivables.

Asset coverage ratio: the Company must have eligible receivables and inventory totaling not less than 1.25 times its total debt outstanding under the TD facility, including term loans.

Maximum funded debt to EBITDA ratio of 6.50 and reverting back to 3.50 at January 2013.

Minimum EBITDA of $3.5 million at January 2012, ramping up to $5.5 million at January 2013 (exclusions allowed for certain costs relating to India and a plant shutdown).

This Amendment cures a technical default on the TD Bank loan. As of January 31, 2012 the Company had available borrowing of approximately $1.7 million under the amended facility.

On October 20, 2011, Lakeland Industries, Inc. signed with Bank Itau in Brazil to borrow $R1million and on December 23, 2011, $R2 million (together approximately USD$1.6 million) for working capital in advance of the large orders received from the Brazilian Navy and others.

Reference is made to Amendment No. 4 for a complete description of its terms and conditions, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
