On February 28, 2013, Icahn Enterprises L.P. (the “Company”) entered into an underwriting agreement (the “Underwriting Agreement”) with Jefferies & Company, Inc. (the “Underwriter”), providing for the issuance and purchase of an aggregate of 3,174,604 depositary units representing limited partner interests in the Company (the “Depositary Units”) at a price to the public of $63.00 per Depositary Unit (the “Offering”). Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, the Company also granted the Underwriter a 30-day option to purchase up to 476,191 additional Depositary Units at the same public offering price.

The gross proceeds to the Company from the Offering are expected to be approximately $200 million, before deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and other estimated offering expenses payable by us, or gross proceeds of approximately $223 million if the Underwriter exercises in full its option to purchase additional Depositary Units pursuant to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement. The Offering is expected to close on or about March 6, 2013, subject to conditions set forth in the Underwriting Agreement. All of the Depositary Units in the Offering are to be sold by the Company.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the Offering for general partnership purposes, which may include investments in operating subsidiaries and potential acquisitions in accordance with the Company’s investment strategy.

The Underwriting Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and agreements by the Company and customary conditions to closing. The Underwriting Agreement contains customary indemnification obligations of the Company and the Underwriter, including for liabilities under the Securities Act, other obligations of the parties and termination provisions.
