1. Business and Organization

Business and Organization

Hot Mama's Foods was formed as a sole-proprietorship in Amherst, Massachusetts, in 1984 as a maker of a variety of fresh salsa recipes, distributed directly to small local retailers by its owner-operator. The company was maintained as a sole-proprietorship until its incorporation on January 29, 1999 as a C corporation under the name Lansal, Inc. ("Lansal") under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On July 26, 2013, the Company completed a Merger Agreement with Andover Medical, Inc. ("Andover"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware on September 9, 2005.

Hot Mama's Foods manufactures and packages natural and organic food products for retail sale, private label, and food service operations. Among these products are salsa, hummus, dips, and sauces. Customers are located throughout the United States, but our customers distribute our product primarily east of the Mississippi. The Company has manufacturing facilities located in Springfield, Massachusetts, and Elk Grove Village, Illinois.

Typically, we are broadly affected by the occurrence of holidays and increased entertaining that occurs in the summer months. The Company's operations do not shut down for extended periods of time or engage in large seasonal layoffs or staff reductions due to seasonal factors. The Company's business cycle typically has a mild peak in June and July, and a second mild peak that precedes the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

Reverse Merger with Andover Medical

On April 4, 2013, the Company entered into a Merger Agreement (the "Merger Agreement") by and among: (i) Lansal, Inc. ("Lansal"); (ii) the Company (under its former name, "Andover Medical, Inc."); (iii) Hot Mama's Acquisition Corp. ("Merger-Sub", a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company); and (iv) Matthew Morse ("Morse"), then the sole shareholder of Lansal. The Merger Agreement closed on July 26, 2013 (the "Closing"). Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub merged with and into Lansal and Lansal became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and Merger Sub ceased to exist as a separate entity. In addition, Morse was issued 85.9% (and his designees were issued 5.1%) of the common stock, warrants, and preferred stock of the Company, and became the CEO and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company. In connection with the Closing, the Company effected a 1-for-39 reverse stock split, with fractional shares being rounded up to the nearest whole share, and it amended the Certificate of Designation of its Series A Preferred Shares to increase the number of Series A Preferred Shares from 4,016 to 44,623.

Prior to the Closing and its acquisition of Lansal, the Company had no operations. Lansal was an active business, and operated under the name "Hot Mama's Foods." When the Company acquired Lansal, it assumed the business and operations of Lansal. The operations of the Company after the Closing are substantially the same as the operations of Lansal before the Closing. In connection with the Closing, On July 29, 2013, the Company changed its name from "Andover Medical, Inc." to "Hot Mama's Foods, Inc."

As a result of the reverse merger there was a change in capital structure which required retroactive treatment effective for all of the periods presented. The re-capitalization of equity resulted in amounts presented for par value for common and preferred stock and corresponding adjustments to additional paid-in capital. No amounts were recorded in the statement of operations as a result of this transaction.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation and Basis of Presentation:

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial position of Hot Mama's Foods, Inc. (the "Company") as of September 30, 2013, the results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2013 and September 30, 2012, and statements of cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and September 30, 2012. These results are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, and include the Company's accounts as well as those of a certain variable interest entity ("VIE") for which the Company is the primary beneficiary. All inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

The December 31, 2012 balance sheet included herein was derived from the audited financial statements included in the Company's Form 10 last filed with the SEC on November 15, 2013. Accordingly, the financial statements included herein should be reviewed in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10 for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires that management make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Non-controlling Interests

The Company presents non-controlling interests as a component of equity, changes in a parent's ownership interest while the parent retains its controlling interest will be accounted for as equity transactions, and upon a loss of control, retained ownership interest will be re-measured at fair value, with any gain or loss recognized in earnings.

Income and losses attributable to the non-controlling interests associated with BML Holdings, LLC are presented separately in the Company's basic financial statements.

Revenue Recognition:

The Company recognizes revenue when the product's title and risk of loss transfers to the Company based upon shipping terms.

The policy meets the four following criteria (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists; (ii) delivery has occurred; (iii) the seller's price to the buyer is fixed and determinable and (iv) collectability is reasonably assured. The Company's sales policy is to require customers to provide orders with the agreed upon selling prices and shipping terms. The Company evaluates the credit risk of each customer and establishes an allowance of doubtful accounts for any credit risk. Sales returns and allowances are estimated upon shipment and based upon historical experience is nil.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Fair Value of Financial Instruments:

The Company adopted the provisions of the accounting pronouncement which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and enhances fair value measurement disclosure. Under the provisions of the pronouncement, fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the "exit price") in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

U.S. GAAP establishes a hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use on unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company's assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The hierarchy is described below:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for assets or liabilities. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to Level 1 inputs.

Level 2: Observable prices that are based on inputs not quoted on active markets, but corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs are used when little or no market data is available. The fair value hierarchy gives the lowest priority to Level 3 inputs.

The Company's current financial assets and liabilities approximate fair value due to their short term nature and include cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable capital leases and line of credit. Notes and mortgages payable approximate fair value as the terms and interest rates they are carried at approximate the rates they would incur if they refinanced the obligations.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Concentrations of Credit Risk:

Cash held in banks: The Company maintains cash balances at a financial institution that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to federally insured limits. At times balances may exceed FDIC insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

Accounts Receivable:

Customer accounts typically are collected within a short period of time, and based on its assessment of current conditions and its experience collecting such receivables, management believes it has no significant risk related to its concentration within its accounts receivable.

Inventories:

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined on a first-in, first-out basis. The Company regularly assesses the shelf-life of inventories and reserves for those inventories when it becomes apparent the product will not be sold or raw materials will not be utilized in the production process within freshness specifications. An allowance for obsolete finished goods or packaging materials was not deemed necessary as of September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012.

Equipment and Leasehold Improvements:

Office and manufacturing equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided using various straight-line and accelerated methods over the following fixed asset lives:

Computers and Software	5 years
Furniture and Fixtures	7-10 years
Machinery and Equipment	7-12 years
Vehicles	5-6 years

Leasehold improvements are amortized over the term of the lease or the useful life of the asset, whichever is shorter.

Maintenance, repairs, and renewals that do not materially add to the value of the equipment nor appreciably prolong its life are charged to expense as incurred.

When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and the resulting gain or loss is included in the Statements of Operations.

Intangible Assets:

The Company amortizes its trade name using the straight-line method over fifteen years. Additionally, deferred financing costs are amortized over the life of the related bank loan, which ranges from three to ten years.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Deferred Income Taxes:

Deferred income taxes reflects the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes, as well as operating loss and tax credit carry-forwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as current or non-current based on the classification of the related assets or liabilities for financial reporting, or according to the expected reversal dates of the specific temporary differences, if not related to an asset or liability for financial reporting. Valuation allowances are established against deferred tax assets if it is more likely than not that the assets will not be realized.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates or laws is recognized in operations in the period that includes the enactment date.

Income Tax Uncertainties:

The calculation of the Company's tax liabilities involves dealing with uncertainties in the application of complex tax regulations. The Company recognizes liabilities for uncertain tax positions based on the two-step process prescribed by applicable accounting principles. The first step is to evaluate the tax position for recognition by determining if the weight of available evidence indicates that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained on audit, including resolution of related appeals or litigation processes, if any. The second step requires the Company to estimate and measure the tax benefit as the largest amount that is more than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. It is inherently difficult and subjective to estimate such amounts, as this requires the Company to determine the probability of various possible outcomes.

The Company reevaluates these uncertain tax positions on a quarterly basis. This evaluation is based on factors including, but not limited to, changes in facts or circumstances, changes in tax law, effectively settled issues under audit, and new audit activity. Such a change in recognition or measurement would result in the recognition of a tax benefit or an additional charge to the tax provision in the period. The Company recognizes interest and penalties as incurred in other income (expense), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company has not recognized any uncertain tax positions.

Net Income (Loss) Per Common Share:

Basic net income (loss) per share attributable to common stockholders is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period, including common stock equivalents, such as stock options and warrants using the treasury stock method. Diluted income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period and excludes the anti-dilutive effects of common stock equivalents that decrease the weighted-average number of shares outstanding on a hypothetical conversion. In instances where the Company has a net loss, basic and diluted loss per share are determined to be the same as the increase of weighted-average number of shares would decrease the net loss per share.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Stock-Based Compensation:

The Company accounts for stock-based awards to employees in accordance with applicable accounting principles, which requires compensation expense related to share-based transactions, including employee stock options, to be measured and recognized in the financial statements based on a determination of the fair value of the stock options. The grant date fair value is determined using the Black-Scholes-Merton ("Black-Scholes") pricing model. For all employee stock options, we recognize expense over the requisite service period on an accelerated basis over the employee's requisite service period (generally the vesting period of the equity grant). The Company's option pricing model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the expected stock price volatility, expected term, and forfeiture rate. Any changes in these highly subjective assumptions significantly impact stock-based compensation expense.

Options awarded to purchase shares of common stock issued to non-employees in exchange for services are accounted for as variable awards in accordance with applicable accounting principles. Such options are valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

Risks and Uncertainties:

The Company's operations are subject to a number of risks, including but not limited to, changes in the general economy, demand for the Company's products, the success of its customers, research and development results, reliance on commercial markets, litigation, and the renewal of its line of credit.

Long-Lived Assets:

The Company assesses the recoverability of the carrying value of its long-lived assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to future, undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by an asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. No impairment losses have been recognized for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and the year ended December 31, 2012.

Accounts Receivable:

The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers and adjusts credit limits based on customer payment and current credit worthiness, as determined by review of their current credit information. The Company continuously monitors credit limits for and payments from its customers and maintains provision for estimated credit losses based on its historical experience and any specific customer issues that have been identified. While such credit losses have historically been within the Company's expectation and the provision established, the Company cannot guarantee that this will continue. The Company has an allowance for doubtful accounts of $35 and $0 at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively.

3. Variable Interest Entity

The Company holds a variable interest in BML Holdings, LLC ("BML"). BML is the lessor of the Company's Springfield, MA facility and is owned 100% by Mr. Morse of Hot Mama's Foods, Inc. The Company and BML have a Cross-Collateralization/Cross-Default/Cross-Guaranty Agreement with their lenders. BML has entered into a Collateral Assignment of Leases and Rents with the lenders. These agreements would become operative at the lenders' option upon occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to the loan documents. Mr. Morse has guaranteed the Company and BML notes and mortgages, and has assigned a $750 life insurance policy

The Company has a variable interest in BML obtained in the lessee and lessor relationship, which is impacted by common ownership and the ability to compel payment whether stated or silent in the lease agreement. The Company is deemed to have a controlling financial interest as it has the power to direct the activities of the variable interest entity that most significantly impact BML's economic performance and the obligation to absorb losses of BML that could potentially be significant.

The Company reassesses every reporting period the presentation of BML to conclude if consolidation is required. As such, the conclusion regarding the primary beneficiary status is subject to change and circumstances are continually reevaluated.

The classification and carrying amounts of assets and liabilities of BML in the condensed consolidated balance sheet are as follows for the periods ended September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012:

	September 30, 2013	December 31, 2012

Overview of our Business

(All dollar amounts referred to herein are in thousands, except as otherwise indicated.)

We develop, manufacture, sell, and distribute perishable prepared foods including: salsa, hummus, pesto, dips, spreads, deli salads, entrees, side dishes and similar product categories. We continue to diversify our product offerings by integrating more entrees, side dishes, soups and sauces. Our products are manufactured conventionally (with preservatives), all-natural (without any artificial ingredients or substances), certified organic, Kosher, or with other designations as indicated by our customers. Our products appear in the market under our "Hot Mama's Foods" brand, under the label of a wholesale brand customer (Contract or Copack), or under private label (the label of a retailer, or store brand). We market our products to regional and national retail grocery chains, distributors to the retail grocery industry, brand-holders requiring contract manufacturing services, restaurant chains, and secondary processors making assemblies using our products as components or ingredients. Our products are sold throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

We have experienced rapid growth in recent years. For the nine months ended September 30, 2013 revenue increased 17.1% to $25,668 as compared to $21,915 in the comparable period last year. Our growth has been driven by increased market penetration, additional product offerings, and, in part, by promotional and marketing efforts increasing awareness of the hummus category in particular. The Company had a large concentration of sales to two customers, which represent approximately 48% and 37%, respectively, of revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 as compared to 54% and 30%, respectively, for the nine months ended September 30, 2012. As product lines grow and the marketing campaigns continue to be successful, we hope to increase our customer base. We do not have contracts with our two largest customers and no minimum purchases are required. Revenues are based upon firm purchase orders received from our customers.

We signed a 10-year lease for our new facility in Wheeling, IL, and we are initiating an expansion and upgrade program for our owned facility in Springfield, MA. These changes have been implemented to support our expected growth and to support a wider range of capabilities and increased capacity. Our plans will require new equipment and infrastructure investment, including the implementation of a new integrated Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP), Customer Relationship Management (CRM), and Business Intelligence (BI) system to accommodate the expected growth in our business. See "Liquidity and Capital Resources" below.

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash flows from operations, short term working capital financing from $1,550 lines of credit, including a $250 line of credit for equipment, and various long-term debt financing activities. We plan to continue to increase revenues with focused sales efforts, existing account development, and additional product offerings. We will continue improvements in manufacturing equipment training, and processes, business systems, and overhead reduction to strengthen our gross profit and EBIDTA. However, in order to expand capacity and capability to enable us to capitalize on new opportunities, additional capital will be required. The Company has total purchase commitments for machinery and equipment and a new manufacturing system totaling approximately $2,233, of which $776 has been paid with the remaining balance expected to be paid within the next six months. Our business expansion may require additional capital resources that may be funded through the issuance of common stock or of notes payable or other debt instruments that may affect our debt structure. Our cash flow projections presently indicate that we will have sufficient liquidity to fund our ongoing operations for the next twelve months. There can be no assurances that we will be able to increase revenue or obtain additional capital.

Results of Operations for the Quarter Ended September 30, 2013 as compared to September 30, 2012

Net Revenues

Net revenues increased $1,115 (14.2%) to $8,978 for the quarter ended September 30, 2013, as compared to $7,863 for the quarter ended September 30, 2012. The Hummus product line represents the major portion of sales and accounted for approximately 71% and 68% of total revenues for the quarters ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively. This increase in revenues is primarily due to the higher volume as a result of effective marketing campaigns, and product quality as compared to competition. Two customers accounted for 85% of revenues for the quarter ended September 30, 2013 as compared to 88% for the quarter ended September 30, 2012. As product lines grow and the marketing campaigns continue to be successful, we hope to increase our customer base. Gross profit as a percentage of sales was 14.9% for the quarter ended September 30, 2013 as compared to 17.9% for the quarter ended September 30, 2012. The decrease is driven by the higher material and direct and indirect labor costs. Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Total selling, general and administrative expenses increased by $1,814 to $2,869 for the quarter ended September 30, 2013 as compared to $1,055 for the quarter ended September 30, 2012. This increase of 172% is primarily attributed to share-based compensation of $1,626 associated with the issuance of stock and warrants. Excluding share-based compensation total selling, general and administrative expenses increased $188 or 17.8% as a result of an increase in salaries and other payroll costs related to additional personnel to strengthen the organization as well as higher consulting and professional fees associated with the merger.

September 30, 2013 Principal Sources and Uses of Funds

At September 30, 2013 the Company had working capital of $237 as compared to $223 of positive working capital at December 31, 2012. This resulted primarily from the increase in the Company's accounts payable, accrued expenses, and bank overdrafts offset by an increase in accounts receivable and inventories.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2013, the Company had a net decrease in cash of $305. The principal sources and uses of funds were as follows:

Cash provided by operating activities: For the nine months ended September 30, 2013 the Company generated $768 of cash from operating activities as compared to $847 for the nine months ended September 30, 2012. This decrease is primarily attributed to the lower operating income, excluding the share-based compensations, for the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

Cash used in investing activities: Net cash used in investing activities was $1,199 for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 as compared to $704 for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 due primarily to an increase in the purchase of equipment for our Wheeling, Illinois facility.

This increase is attributed mostly to the cash proceeds from the reverse merger and borrowings from the line of credit.

Financing Activities

In December 2012, the Company negotiated a revolving line of credit with a bank in the amount of $1,300, which requires monthly interest payments at a rate of prime plus 0.5% (3.75% at September 30, 2013), but at no time shall the interest rate be less than 4.0%. The availability of loans is subject to certain restrictions based upon accounts receivable. Each calendar year the Company must reduce the unpaid balance due to zero, and must maintain such balance for 30 days. All unpaid principal and interest under this line is immediately payable upon demand (whether or not scheduled payments have been timely made) and the Company will be in default if not paid immediately once demand is made. The lender maintains the sole and exclusive discretion as to whether to continue with this line of credit. All unpaid principal and interest shall be immediately due and payable upon demand. At September 30, 2013 the balance was $630 and $670 was available on the line of credit.

In December 2012, The Company also signed an additional line of credit for equipment in the amount of $250. All advances are at the sole discretion of the bank. These advances may be used only for eligible equipment and may not exceed 80% of the equipment value. Interest commences at the date of advance and is payable monthly. Advances are payable (including interest) over 60 months at a rate of prime plus 1%, but at no time shall the interest rate be less than 4.0%. The balance on this line of credit was $250 at September 30, 2013.

The Company also has an available credit card line of credit in the amount of $50, subject to variable credit card interest rates and repayment terms. There were no outstanding balances on this credit card line at September 30, 2013.

The lines of credit are secured by substantially all of the Company's assets, BML Holdings LLC and mortgages on property owned by the shareholder as well as being guaranteed by the stockholder.

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash flows from operations, short term working capital financing from a $1,550 line of credit, and various long-term debt financing activities. We plan to continue to increase revenues with focused sales efforts, existing account development, and additional product offerings. We will continue improvements in manufacturing equipment, training, and processes, business systems, and overhead reduction to strengthen our gross profit and EBIDTA. However, in order to expand capacity and capability to enable us to capitalize on new opportunities, additional capital will be required. The Company has total purchase commitments for machinery and equipment and a new manufacturing system totaling approximately $2,233, of which $776 has been paid with the remaining balance expected to be paid within the next six months. Our business expansion may require additional capital resources that may be funded through the issuance of common stock or of notes payable or other debt instruments that may affect our debt structure. Our cash flow projections presently indicate that we will have sufficient liquidity to fund our ongoing operations for the next twelve months. There can be no assurances that we will be able to increase revenue or obtain additional capital.

Our capital requirements are large at this time to support our growth. In the foreseeable future, we will continue to have large capital needs to finance the expansion of facilities and capacity. The Company is currently SQF (“Safe Quality Food”) compliant and the Wheeling, IL facility is being updated to also comply with these requirements. We are confident that we will be able to secure the necessary funding, when necessary, to fund our operations and plans for at least the next twelve months.

Impact of Inflation

Inflation has not had a material effect on our results of operations. We expect the market for raw materials to fluctuate periodically as is typical for our primary materials: fresh produce and plastics.

Seasonality

Typically salsa, hummus and dip categories are broadly affected by the occurrence of “eating holidays” and increased entertaining that occurs in the summer months. Our operations do not shut down for extended periods of time or engage in large seasonal layoffs or staff reductions due to seasonal factors. Our business cycle typically has a mild peak in June and July, and a second mild peak that precedes the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

Critical Accounting Estimates

In preparing the financial statements and accounting for the underlying transactions and balances, the Company applies its accounting policies as disclosed in Note 2 of our Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The Company’s accounting policies that require a higher degree of judgment and complexity used in the preparation of financial statements include:

Revenue Recognition - The Company recognizes revenue when the product’s title and risk of loss transfers to the Company based upon shipping terms. The policy meets the four following criteria (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists; (ii) delivery has occurred; (iii) the seller’s price to the buyer is fixed and determinable and (iv) collectability is reasonably assured. The Company’s sales policy is to require customers to provide orders with the agreed upon selling prices and shipping terms. The Company evaluates the credit risk of each customer and establishes an allowance of doubtful accounts for any credit risk. Sales returns and allowances are estimated upon shipment and based upon historical experience is nil.

Accounts Receivable - The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers and adjusts credit limits based on customer payment and current credit worthiness, as determined by review of their current credit information. The Company continuously monitors credit limits for and payments from its customers and maintains provision for estimated credit losses based on its historical experience and any specific customer issues that have been identified. While such credit losses have historically been within the Company’s expectation and the provision established, the Company cannot guarantee that this will continue.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company is not party to any off-balance sheet arrangements that may affect its financial position of results of operations.

New Accounting Pronouncements:

No recently issued accounting pronouncements had or are expected to have a material impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

The term “disclosure controls and procedures” is defined in Rules 13(a)-15e and 15(d) - 15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). The Company’s principal executive officer and principal financial officer has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of September 30, 2013. He has concluded that, as of September 30, 2013, our disclosures were not effective to ensure that:

- (1) Information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files or submits under the act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commissions’ rules and forms; and
- (2) Controls and procedures are designed by the Company to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the issuer’s management including the principal executive and principal financial officers or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding financial disclosure.

This term refers to the controls and procedures of a Company that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by a Company in the reports that it files under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the required time periods. Management concludes that the current situation is a consequence of the work involved in the recent Merger, the process of consolidating activities, recordkeeping, and reporting of the business entities involved, and the small scale of current operations. Management has begun to take steps to improve its controls and procedures, and expects, further, that the growing scale of the business will enable the Company to obtain additional resources to assist in that effort.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting or in any other factors that could significantly affect these controls during the quarter ended September 30, 2013, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
