EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Form 8-K/A amends the Current Report on Form 8-K originally filed on February 16, 2016 (the “Original Filing”) by Ameris Bancorp (“Ameris”). The Original Filing is superseded in its entirety by this Form 8-K/A.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 7, 2015, Ameris filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-208355) (as amended from time to time, the “Registration Statement”) to register shares of the common stock of Ameris anticipated to be issued upon consummation of the proposed merger (the “Merger”) of Jacksonville Bancorp, Inc., a Florida corporation (“Jacksonville”), with and into Ameris pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger between Ameris and Jacksonville dated as of September 30, 2015 (the “Merger Agreement”). The Registration Statement, which became effective at 5:00 p.m. on February 4, 2016, sets forth a deadline by which shareholders of Jacksonville must elect the type of consideration they wish to receive in the Merger (the “Merger Consideration Election”), subject to the proration provisions in the Merger Agreement, of March 11, 2016, which is the date of the special meeting at which shareholders of Jacksonville will consider and vote upon the Merger.

In connection with the Merger Consideration Election, on or about February 8, 2016, Computershare Investor Services, the exchange agent for the Merger (the “Exchange Agent”), mailed an election statement (the “Old Election Statement”) to each registered holder of Jacksonville common stock and nonvoting common stock pursuant to which such shareholder could elect the type of consideration he or she wishes to receive in the Merger, subject to the proration provisions in the Merger Agreement. Due to a required change in the election process, the Old Election Statement should be disregarded and is of no further force or effect. Any purported election made by a shareholder of Jacksonville on the Old Election Statement will not be valid or effective.

A new Election Statement and Letter of Transmittal (the “New Election Statement”) with updated instructions was mailed to Jacksonville’s shareholders on or about February 19, 2016. In order to properly make a Merger Consideration Election, shareholders of Jacksonville must follow the instructions in the New Election Statement, and the Exchange Agent must receive all required documentation by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on March 11, 2016. Shareholders of Jacksonville will be required to send their share certificate(s) to the Exchange Agent with the New Election Statement and other required documentation at the same time they make their Merger Consideration Election. The form of the New Election Statement is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

The expected timing of the closing of the Merger has not been impacted by this change in procedure for the Merger Consideration Election. Ameris expects the Merger to be consummated in the first quarter of 2016, subject to receipt of the approval of the shareholders of Jacksonville. As provided in the Registration Statement, the special meeting of Jacksonville's shareholders to consider and vote upon the Merger is scheduled for March 11, 2016, and all regulatory approvals required for the consummation of the Merger have been received. In addition, the expected timing of the delivery of the merger consideration following the closing of the Merger has not been affected by this change in procedure for the Merger Consideration Election.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information.

This Current Report contains "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In general, forward-looking statements usually use words such as "may," "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "will," "should," "plan," "estimate," "predict," "continue" and "potential" or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology including statements related to the expected timing of the closing of the Merger. Forward-looking statements represent management's beliefs, based upon information available at the time the statements are made, with regard to the matters addressed; they are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements.

Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, the possibility that expected benefits may not materialize in the timeframes expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that the Merger may not be timely completed, if at all; that prior to completion of the Merger or thereafter, the parties' respective businesses may not perform as expected due to transaction-related uncertainties or other factors; that the parties are unable to implement successful integration strategies; that the required shareholder or other closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner, or at all; reputational risks and the reaction of the parties' customers to the Merger; diversion of management time to Merger-related issues; and other factors and risk influences contained in the cautionary language included under the headings "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Risk Factors" in Ameris's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and other documents subsequently filed by Ameris with the SEC. Consequently, no forward-looking statement can be guaranteed. Neither Ameris nor Jacksonville undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. For any forward-looking statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K, the exhibits hereto or any related documents, Ameris and Jacksonville claim protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.
