Certain statements in this report may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that include projections, predictions, expectations, or beliefs about future events or results or otherwise are not statements of historical fact, are based on certain assumptions as of the time they are made, and are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, some of which cannot be predicted or quantified. Actual future results and trends may differ materially from historical results or those anticipated depending on a variety of factors, including but not limited to: (1) Citizens National may not be integrated successfully into Old Point or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; (2) expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the Merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected timeframe; (3) revenues following the Merger may be lower than expected; (4) customer and employee relationships and business operations may be disrupted by the Merger; (5) the ability to obtain required regulatory and shareholder approvals, and the ability to complete the Merger on the expected timeframe may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; (6) changes in interest rates, general economic conditions, tax rates, legislative/regulatory changes, monetary and fiscal policies of the U.S. government, including policies of the U.S. Treasury, Office of the Comptroller of Currency and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; the quality and composition of the loan and securities portfolios; demand for loan products; the level of net charge-offs on loans; deposit flows; competition; demand for financial services in the companies' respective market areas; their implementation of new technologies; reliance on third parties for key services; the companies' ability to develop and maintain secure and reliable electronic systems; and accounting principles, policies, and guidelines; and (7) other risk factors detailed from time to time in filings made by Old Point with the SEC.
