a compliance awareness program among all of its employees. Mitsui is taking the investigation and facts revealed by the authority very seriously, and seeks to further reinforce the preventative measures which have so far been implemented. At the same time, Mitsui will continue to do its best to expedite the replacement and redemption of the DPFs.

Mitsui again expresses its utmost regret to DPF users and all the parties concerned, including the citizens and the local community for the occurrence of the incident.
