Following the A Share Issue pursuant to the approval of relevant approval authorities, all the existing Domestic Shares issued before the A Share Issue, i.e., the Shares in the Company held by CNPC, the controlling shareholder of the Company, have been registered with China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited as circulative A Shares. CNPC has undertaken that for a period of 36 months commencing from the date of listing of the A Shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange ("Listing Date"), it will not transfer or entrust others for the management of the A Shares which it holds in the capital of the Company or allow such Shares to be repurchased by the Company. However, certain Shares of the Company that CNPC holds, which may be subsequently listed on overseas stock exchanges after obtaining necessary approval in the PRC, are not subject to the restriction of the 36-month lock-up period. All of these Shares held by CNPC, save and except for the lock-up period, carry the same rights as other A Shares issued by the Company.

One billion A Shares that have been placed with target places off-line will be subject to a lock-up period of three months from the Listing Date. Three billion A Shares that have been subscribed for on-line are not subject to any lock-up period.

An announcement regarding completion of the A Share Issue will be published in several PRC newspapers including the China Securities Journal, Shanghai Securities News, Securities Times and Securities Daily on 2 November 2007. The announcement will set out the above information, details of the A Share Issue as well as basic information about the Company. Such full announcement and the A Share prospectus were published on the websites of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Shanghai Stock Exchange (www.sse.com.cn) and the Company as at the date of this announcement.
