Under the Companies Law, companies incorporated under the laws of the State of Israel whose shares, inter alia, are listed for trading on a stock exchange or have been offered to the public by a prospectus and are held by the public are required to have at least two External Directors.

The Companies Law further provides that a person may not be elected as an External Director if the person or the person's relative, partner, employer, anyone to whom the person is subordinate, directly or indirectly, or any entity under the person's control has, as of the date of the person's election to serve as an External Director, or had, during the two years preceding that date, any affiliation (as defined below) with:
