- i) Press release Announcement of the establishment of new company by joint incorporation-type company split (small-scale company split) by Sony Corporation and Sony Computer Science Laboratories, Inc.

December 18, 2014
Sony Corporation

Announcement of the establishment of new company by joint incorporation-type company split (small-scale company split) by Sony Corporation and Sony Computer Science Laboratories, Inc.

Sony Corporation (“Sony”) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Sony Computer Science Laboratories, Inc. (“Sony CSL”), today announced that both companies have decided to establish a new company by a “joint incorporation-type company split.” The new company will succeed to certain rights and obligations related to the online educational service business (the “Business”) that Sony and Sony CSL each currently operate, relating to the application services, including Global Math Challenge, a worldwide math competition held online. For further details about the new company, please refer to our joint press release dated today (URL: <http://www.sony.net/SonyInfo/News/Press/201412/14-119E/index.html>).

Certain information is omitted from this announcement since this is a joint small-scale company split with Sony’s wholly-owned subsidiary.

1. Purpose of the company split
The purpose of this company split is to have a newly established company, Sony Global Education, Inc. ("SGED"), succeed to certain of Sony's rights and obligations related to the Business.
2. Summary of the company split
 - (1) Schedule of the company split
Approval of the joint incorporation-type company split plan December 18, 2014
(by representative corporate executive officer)
Effective date of the company split April 1, 2015 (scheduled)
Sony will not obtain shareholder approval of the joint incorporation-type company split plan pursuant to the provisions of the "small-scale company split" set forth in Article 805 of the Companies Act of Japan.
 - (2) Method of the company split
The method of the contemplated company split is a joint incorporation-type company split between Sony and Sony CSL (as the splitting companies), and SGED (as the formed and successor company).
 - (3) Details of consideration allotted upon the company split
SGED will issue 180 shares of common stock to Sony upon completion of the contemplated company split.
 - (4) Treatment of stock acquisition rights and bonds with stock acquisition rights of the splitting company
There will be no changes to the treatment of stock acquisition rights or bonds with stock acquisition rights of Sony upon the completion of the contemplated company split.

- (5) Increase or decrease of share capital upon the company split
There will be no increase or decrease of share capital of Sony upon completion of the contemplated company split.
- (6) Rights and obligations to be succeeded to by the formed and successor company
SGED, as the formed and successor company, will succeed to certain rights and obligations related to the Business, as set forth in the joint incorporation-type company split plan.

- (7) Expectation of the performance capabilities of Sony's obligations
 Sony expects that the contemplated company split will have no material impact on the performance capabilities of SGED to fulfill its obligations which become due after the effective date of the contemplated company split.
3. Summary of parties (For Sony and Sony CSL, numbers shown below are as of March 31, 2014 or for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014. For SGED, numbers shown below are as of the date of incorporation.)
