On September 19, 2016, Wainwright, and Concierge Technologies, Inc. (CNCG), entered into a definitive agreement together with certain shareholders of Wainwright pursuant to which Concierge would acquire shares of Wainwright representing approximately 97% of the issued and outstanding shares. Prior to the closing, CNCG intends to make offers to acquire the remaining shares of Wainwright.

The planned acquisition of Wainwright remains contingent upon various conditions being met before closing, which is expected to happen before the end of 2016. As a result of the transaction, current shareholders of Wainwright will become shareholders of Concierge. Nicholas Gerber, along with certain family members and certain other Wainwright shareholders, currently own the majority of shares in Concierge as well as Wainwright. Following the closing of the Wainwright transaction, Mr. Gerber and those shareholders will continue to own the majority of Concierge voting shares.
