FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SILICOM ACHIEVES ANOTHER DESIGN WIN WITH A WAN OPTIMIZATION COMPANY

Silicom Bypass Cards now used by Seven WAN Optimization Companies

KFAR SAVA, Israel, October 24, 2007 Silicom Ltd. (NASDAQ & TASE: SILC) today announced that it has achieved a new Design Win for its Bypass adapters with an additional company in the WAN optimization market, and it has already received initial purchase orders. This brings the total number of players in the WAN Optimization market which use Silicom cards to seven.

The Company will use the Silicom Bypass adapters in its appliance products. These appliances are designed to improve backup, replication and recovery between data centers and facilitates branch office server and storage centralization, by improving application performance across the Wide Area Network (WAN).

We see continued strong momentum in the WAN Optimization market, benefiting many market players including Silicom, said Mr. Shaikhe Orbach, President and CEO of Silicom. This Design Win again expands our footprint in the WAN Optimization sector and we are now supplying adapters to seven market players. This demonstrates the strength of Silicom's penetration into this market, which we believe continues to have significant growth potential going forward.

Mr. Orbach continued, Our strategy has proven to be and remains successful, and we continue to be very excited with regard to the opportunities ahead of us- especially in the WAN Optimization and the Security spaces.
