Item 3.02

Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

- (a) On July 17, 2013, the Company announced that the Board of Directors has decided that it intends to cease its borrowing from Asher Enterprises. The Company has 3 outstanding convertible notes from Asher totaling $143,500 which the Company expects to be fully converted in November 2013. After the final note has been converted that Company does not expect to borrow any additional funds from Asher. The Board of Directors believes it can raise the necessary capital at better terms than those from Asher Enterprises convertible notes.
- (b) The Company is currently in discussions with SC Capital regarding entering into an agreement regarding the promissory notes totaling approximately $350,000. The Company is currently discussing repayment through an S-1 offering or allowing the notes to convert at a 15% discount to market in lieu of the 50% discount that Asher Enterprises currently converts its promissory notes.
- (c) Since January 2012, the Company has borrowed approximately $450,000 from Paul Howarth, our CEO (including $187,500 in accrued salary). In 2011 the Company borrowed approximately $175,000 from Paul Howarth. The Company currently owes him approximately $245,000.
- (d) Since January 2012, the Company has borrowed approximately $400,000 (including $187,500 in accrued salary) from Joseph Mezey, our CFO, and currently owes him approximately $70,000.
- (e) Paul Howarth, our CEO, will be in South America for the next few weeks visiting the Company's operations in Suriname and Peru.
