Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

In the third quarter of 2012, Aero Metal Products, Inc. (“AMP”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Servotronics, Inc. (the “Company”), ceased all manufacturing operations and the Company will account for AMP as discontinued operations in such period. On October 23, 2012, AMP announced that it will surrender all assets under the personal property and real property lease to the lessor, Aero Inc., a previously reported related party, by November 3, 2012.

In 2009, AMP leased certain personal property from a related party through the execution of a capital lease. Also in 2009, AMP entered into a real property operating lease agreement, with the same related party. These transactions have been disclosed as related party transactions in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission because the wife of one of the Company’s directors is the sole shareholder of Aero, Inc., the company that is leasing the assets to AMP.

As previously reported, on July 23, 2012, the Company gave notice of termination of the Personal Property Lease dated as of November 3, 2009 (the “Agreement”). Under the terms of the Agreement, monthly payments of $7,500 still continue to July 2013. The term of the real property lease is scheduled to end on November 3, 2012 and AMP will surrender the property by such date.

NOTES TO PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The pro forma consolidated financial statements have been prepared by management of the Company based upon the historical financial statements of the Company and include pro forma adjustments to account for the closing of Aero Metal Products Inc., a wholly owned related party subsidiary of Servotronics, Inc.

The pro forma adjustments remove all revenue and expense results of Aero Metal Products Inc. in the periods presented as the Company has ceased all manufacturing operations as of September 30, 2012 and does not plan to sell or produce the product line of Aero Metal Products Inc. in the future. The pro forma adjustments also remove the related assets and liabilities of Aero Metal Products, Inc. with the exception of $35,000 in general manufacturing equipment that will be transferred to and put into operation at a subsidiary of the Company.

In conjunction with the disposal transaction, management will be evaluating inventory on hand as of September 30, 2012 to determine if an adjustment is required to record items at the lower of cost or market. Management will also evaluate potential options to liquidate inventory on hand at September 30, 2012. The write-down and related tax effect have not been considered in the pro forma adjustments on the accompanying consolidated statements of income.

On July 23, 2012, the Company gave notice of termination on the Personal Property Lease dated as of November 3, 2009 being accounted for as a capital lease related party in the previously reported consolidated financial statements. Under the terms of the agreement, monthly payments of $7,500 continue to July 2013. As a result of this notice and the aforementioned disposal transaction, removal of the related machinery and equipment and capital lease liability are reflected in the pro forma adjustments on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. During the three months ended September 30, 2012, a liability for the loss associated with the remaining payments on the Personal Property Lease with related party will be recorded and has not been considered in the pro forma adjustments on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.
