ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

On December 17, 2003, Red Hat, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), by and among the Company, Wild Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the Merger Sub) and Sistina Software, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Sistina), providing for the merger of the Merger Sub with and into Sistina with Sistina as the surviving entity. The transaction closed on December 23, 2003. At the effective time of the transaction, each share of Sistina issued and outstanding immediately prior to transaction was canceled and converted into the right to receive shares of Red Hat common stock pursuant to an exchange ratio provided by the Agreement;

each outstanding option to purchase shares of Sistina capital stock was assumed by Red Hat and converted into an option to purchase shares of Red Hat common stock; and each outstanding warrant to purchase shares of Sistina capital stock was assumed by Red Hat and converted into a warrant to purchase shares of Red Hat common stock.

Pursuant to the Agreement, Red Hat acquired Sistina for consideration at closing valued at $31.0 million and comprised of 1,979,874 shares of Red Hat common stock, the assumption of Sistina's outstanding options and warrants and a nominal amount of cash to avoid the issuance of fractional shares. In addition, the transaction includes $12.0 million of contingent consideration based on an earnout carved into three tranches. The earnout is based on the achievement of certain bookings targets for the technologies and services previously sold by Sistina over the period beginning on December 23, 2003 and ending March 31, 2005. Shares issued under the earnout will be determined based on the average closing price of the Company's common stock during the 10 trading days prior to issuance of each tranche of such earnout shares.

For United States federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that this Agreement be adopted by the Parties as a plan of reorganization.

The terms of the transaction are more fully described in the Stock Purchase Agreement filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this report and incorporated herein by this reference.

The terms of the Merger Agreement were determined on the basis of arms-length negotiations. Prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement, neither the Company nor any of its affiliates, nor any director or officer of the Company or any associate of any such director or officer, had any material relationship with Sistina.

Sistina is a storage infrastructure software company. The Company currently intends to continue to use the tangible assets of Sistina constituting equipment or other physical property substantially in the same manner in which they were used by Sistina immediately prior to the merger.
