ITEM 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 24 through 25, 2005, Nuance Communications, Inc. ( Nuance ) entered into a Change of Control and Retention Agreement (the Retention Agreement ) with each of its officers, other than its Chief Executive Officer, who are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Act ). On December 2, 2004, the Board of Directors (the Board ) of Nuance authorized its Chief Executive Officer to cause Nuance to enter into such agreements, with certain specified terms, and such other terms as he may determine are appropriate, with such officers (the Section 16 Officers ) and other officers of Nuance he may select.

Under the terms of the Retention Agreement, in the event of a Change of Control (as described below) of Nuance, each Section 16 Officer will be entitled, if terminated without Cause (as described below) or constructively terminated with Good Reason (as described below) within 18 months after the Change of Control, (a) to receive a cash severance payment equal to her or his annual salary and annual bonus, and (b) to have accelerated the vesting of 50% of his or her unvested options to purchase common stock of Nuance.

Change of Control is generally defined in the Retention Agreement as follows: (a) any person (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Act), becomes the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of Nuance representing fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares of Nuance common stock or of the combined voting power of the outstanding securities of Nuance; (b) the consummation of the sale or disposition by Nuance of all or substantially all of its assets; (c) the consummation of a merger or consolidation of Nuance which would result in the voting securities of Nuance outstanding immediately prior thereto failing to continue to represent (either by remaining outstanding or by being converted into voting securities of the surviving entity) at least 50% of the total voting power represented by the voting securities of Nuance or such surviving entity immediately after such merger or consolidation; or (d) a change in the composition of the Board within any two year period, as a result of which fewer than a majority of the directors are Incumbent Directors.

Incumbent Directors is defined as directors who either (i) are directors of Nuance as of March 24, 2005, or (ii) are elected, or nominated for election, to the Board with the affirmative vote of at least a majority of those directors whose election or nomination was not in connection with an actual or threatened proxy contest relating to the election of directors of Nuance.

The Retention Agreement generally defines Cause as: (a) the willful failure of the Section 16 Officer to follow the lawful written directions of the board of the successor company; (b) the Section 16 Officer engaging in gross misconduct that is materially detrimental to the successor company; (c) the willful failure of the Section 16 Officer to comply, in any materially respect, with his or her confidentiality or propriety rights agreement with the successor company or the insider trading policy or other reasonable policies of the successor company; or (d) the Section 16 Officer being convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude or a court determining that he or she has committed a fraud against the successor company or a fraud against any other person or entity that is materially detrimental to the successor company.

The Retention Agreement generally defines Good Reason as: (a) the assignment to the Section 16 Officer of a title, position, responsibilities or duties that are not a substantive functional equivalent to such capacities assigned to her or him prior to the Change of Control; (b) a reduction in the base salary or target bonus opportunity of the Section 16 Officer in effect prior to the Change of Control; (c) the failure of the successor company to continue to provide the Section 16 Officer an opportunity to participate in benefit or compensation plans, or to receive other fringe benefits, provided to her or him prior to the Change of Control; (d) the successor company requiring the Section 16 Officer to relocate to an office more than 50 miles from her or his residence or to engage in travel at a frequency or for a duration substantially in excess of that required prior to the Change of Control; (e) a material breach of the Retention Agreement by the successor company; or (f) any other constructive termination of the Section 16 Officer by the successor company.
