The Company acquired the site from the Zhejiang Provincial government on 1 November, 1996 at the original purchase price of RMB21,528,000. expected to book a gain of RMB41,213,700 (equivalent to about HK$39,438,947) before tax and RMB31,529,600 (equivalent to about HK$30,171,866) after tax. The Company intends to use the purchase monies from the transfer of the Target Land Use Rights as working capital.

As each of the applicable percentage ratios (other than the profits ratio defined in the Listing Rules) for the Contract is more than 0.1% but less than 2.5%, it is subject to the reporting and announcement requirements but is exempt from independent shareholders' approval requirements.

Relationship between the Company and Sinopec

China Petrochemical Corporation Pipelines Transportation Company is a branch company of Sinopec. Sinopec is the controlling shareholder of the Company, having a beneficial interest of approximately 55.56% of the registered capital of the Company.

Accordingly, the Contract constitutes a connected transaction of the Company and under Rule 14A.32 the Listing Rules is subject to reporting and announcement requirements but exempt from independent shareholders' approval.

Principal activities of the Company and Sinopec

The Company is a highly integrated entity which processes crude oil into synthetic fibers, resins and plastics, intermediate petrochemicals and petroleum products.

Sinopec is an integrated energy and chemical company with upstream, midstream and downstream operations. The principal operations of Sinopec include oil and gas exploration and production, oil refining, petrochemical production and sales/marketing of refined oil products in China.

Reasons for and benefits of the Contract

The Company originally considered to develop the Target Land Use Rights into a oil storage facility at the time of acquisition on 1 November 1996. However, owing to the onerous application process, the Company decided not to proceed with the development plan and the Target Land use Rights had since been vacant. After due consideration, the Company decides to transfer the Target Land Use Rights to China Petrochemical Corporation Pipelines Transportation Company, which will develop large scale oil storage depots and pipeline transmission infrastructures on the site as part of its Yonghuning Pipeline Project development. The Company is of the opinion that the disposal of the Target Land Use Rights not only allows it to generate value from an unused parcel of land but also indirectly benefits it in that it could, if desired, make use of any oil storage depots and pipeline transmission infrastructures developed by China Petrochemical Corporation Pipelines Transportation Company by entering into appropriate arrangements.

The Directors, including the independent non-executive Directors, consider that, based on the terms of the Contract and the fact that the Contract was negotiated on an arm's length basis, the Contract is on normal commercial terms no less favorable to the Company than those offered by an independent third party and are fair and reasonable as far as the Company and its shareholders as a whole are concerned.

Edgar Filing: SINOPEC SHANGHAI PETROCHEMICAL CO LTD - Form 6-K

At the meeting of the board of Directors to approve the Contract, connected Directors Lei Dianwu and Xiang Hanyin abstained from voting in compliance with PRC corporate governance requirements, and the independent non-executive Directors Chen Xinyuan, Sun Chiping, Jiang Zhiquan and Zhou Yunnong expressed their views in approval of the Contract.
