PART II - RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate).

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- x (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K or Form N-SAR, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III - NARRATIVE RESPONSE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K and 10-KSB, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed period.

In February 2008, a new Chief Financial Officer was appointed. In late April, the Company's Chief Executive Officer resigned and a new Chief Executive Officer was appointed. Both the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer have relatively short tenure in their respective positions and therefore have only limited experience with the Company's financial statements and information. Additionally, the recent relocation of the Company's headquarters resulted in a change in accounting department personnel at or subsequent to the end of the fiscal year. Further, we remain heavily dependent on legacy information technology systems that lack adequate documentation and require substantial manual supplementary efforts in support of some of our revenue recognition processes. These factors, singly and in combination, result in risk that the Company's financial results could be materially misstated.

These factors, in combination, prevent the filing of the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q by its due date of August 12, 2008. The Company will file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q within 5 days of the date the original Form 10-Q was due.

If the answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No
If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.
