Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 3, 2008, the Board adopted and approved, effective immediately, the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the Amended and Restated Bylaws). The Amended and Restated Bylaws revise, among other things, the procedures for stockholders to propose business or nominations for the election of directors to be considered at annual or special meetings, which are referred to as advance notice bylaws, and to act by written consent in lieu of a meeting. The advance notice bylaw amendments, among other things:

change the requirement for stockholders to provide advance notice of stockholder proposals or nominations at an annual meeting to provide that such advance notice shall be delivered to the principal executive office of the Company not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, subject to certain conditions; expand the required disclosure requirements for stockholders making proposals or nominations to include, among other things, all ownership interests, hedges, economic incentives and rights to vote any shares of any security of the Company; require stockholders nominating directors to disclose the same information about a proposed director nominee that would be required if the director nominee were submitting a proposal and any material relationships between the stockholder proponents and their affiliates, on the one hand, and the director nominees and their affiliates, on the other hand; expand disclosures regarding proposed business to include a reasonably detailed description of all agreements, arrangements and understandings between proposing persons and other stockholders of the Company in connection with the proposed business; and require that the additional disclosures discussed above be updated and supplemented, if necessary, so as to be accurate as of the record date for a meeting and as of shortly prior to the meeting.

The Amended and Restated Bylaws also revise the procedures for stockholders to act by written consent. The amendments revise the foregoing, among other things, to:

require that any stockholder seeking to request a record date to act by written consent make similar required disclosures as those required under the advance notice bylaws, including all ownership interests, hedges, economic incentives and rights to vote any shares of any security of the Company; and expand disclosures regarding proposed actions to include a reasonably detailed description of all agreements, arrangements and understandings between proposing persons and other stockholders of the Company in connection with the proposed business.

A copy of the Amended and Restated Bylaws is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Amended and Restated Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amended and Restated Bylaws.
