On February 26, 2009 General Motors Corporation ( GM ) filed a Form 12b-25 indicating that additional time to complete its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 is necessary for a more thorough review of the extensive financial and other disclosures regarding the events occurring at year-end 2008 and during early 2009. GM currently requires additional time in order to reflect accurately the outcome of significant ongoing negotiations related to waivers of covenants in certain debt agreements that, if not waived, would require GM to provide annual consolidated financial statements accompanied by a report from GM's independent auditors that does not include a paragraph expressing substantial doubt about GM's ability to continue as a going concern. As previously disclosed, GM anticipates receiving from its auditor an opinion expressing substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern.

GM expects to report a net loss of $30.9 billion, or $53.32 per basic and diluted share, for the year-ended December 31, 2008 compared to a net loss of $38.7 billion, or $68.45 per basic and diluted share, for the year-ended December 31, 2007. In addition, GM expects to report a loss from continuing operations before income taxes, equity income and minority interests of $29.4 billion in 2008 compared to a loss of $6.3 billion in 2007, and total net sales of $149 billion in 2008 compared to $180 billion in 2007.
