Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On the afternoon of May 6, 2009, Richard Anderson, the Executive Vice President and President of North America of Tempur-Pedic International Inc. (the Company) appeared as a panelist at an industry conference. In response to a question, Mr. Anderson noted that some retailers have reported an improvement in recent sales trends and noted he is cautiously optimistic for a recovery in sales.

As a clarification to Mr. Anderson's remarks, the Company notes that although the Company is cautiously optimistic for an eventual recovery, it is far too early to call a turn in business trends, especially given the elevated level of sales volatility the Company continues to experience. In addition, the Company confirmed that in totality its outlook for 2009 has not changed from the guidance presented on the Company's earnings call on April 16, 2009.

This Form 8-K is being furnished solely to satisfy the requirements of Regulation FD in light of the inadvertent disclosure. The Company does not intend to update this information or release similar information in the future. The furnishing of the information under Item 7.01 in this Current Report on Form 8-K is not intended to, and does not, constitute a determination or admission by the Company that the information under Item 7.01 in this Current Report on Form 8-K is material or complete, or that investors should consider this information before making an investment decision with respect to any security of the Company.

The information in this report shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liability of that section, and shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Forward-looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain forward-looking statements, within the meaning of federal securities laws, which include information concerning one or more of the Company's plans, objectives, goals, strategies, and other information that is not historical information. When used in this Form 8-K, the words estimates, expects, anticipates, projects, plans, intends, believes, and variations of such words expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements, including without limitation, statements regarding recent retail sales trends and the timing of any recovery in sales and the Company's outlook for 2009, are based upon current expectations and beliefs and various assumptions. There can be no assurance that the Company will realize these expectations or that these beliefs will prove correct.

There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained in this Form 8-K. Numerous factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control, could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed as forward-looking statements. These risk factors include general economic and industry conditions, particularly in the retail sector, as well as consumer confidence and the availability of consumer financing; the Company's ability to reduce expenses to align with reduced sales levels; uncertainties arising from global events; the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates on the Company's reported earnings; consumer acceptance of the Company's products; industry competition; the efficiency and effectiveness of the Company's advertising campaigns and other marketing programs; the Company's ability to increase sales productivity within existing retail accounts and to further penetrate the U.S. retail furniture channel, including the timing of opening or expanding within large retail accounts; the Company's dependence on its significant customers; the Company's ability to address issues in certain underperforming international markets; the Company's ability to continuously improve its product line, maintain efficient, timely and cost-effective production and delivery of its products, and manage its growth; changes in foreign tax rates, including the ability to utilize tax loss carry forwards; rising commodity costs; the Company's ability to retain members of its senior management team; the effects of increased interest rates; the market price for the Company's common stock prevailing from time to time; and the nature of other investment opportunities presented to the Company from time to time. Additional information concerning these and other risks and uncertainties are discussed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation the Company's annual report on Form 10-K under the headings Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements and Risk Factors. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements for any reason, including to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statements are made or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events or circumstances.
