On August 3, 2010, a consortium led by Korea Electric Power Corporation (KEPCO) was selected as the preferred bidder in an international auction for the construction and operation of the Norte II gas-fueled combined-cycle electricity generation facility in Chihuahua, Mexico, as ordered by the Comision Federal de Electricidad of Mexico. This facility is expected to have a generation capacity of 433 megawatts, and the project will be undertaken on a build, own and operate (BOO) basis.

The total size of the project, which is expected to commence in September 2010 and end in May 2038, is expected to be approximately US$420 million, and KEPCO is expected to make an investment of Won 65.5 billion.

KEPCO holds a 56% interest in the consortium, whose other members are Samsung C&T (with a 34% interest) and Techint, a Mexico company (with a 10% interest). The consortium plans to establish a separate entity to oversee the project.
