Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 13, 2010, Chesapeake Lodging Trust (the Company) announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement to acquire the 360-room Le Meridien San Francisco from HEI San Francisco LLC for a purchase price of $143.0 million, plus customary pro-rated amounts and closing costs. The Company expects to fund the purchase price with a $60.0 million term loan secured by the hotel that is expected to be funded at the closing of the acquisition, a $45.0 million borrowing under its revolving credit facility, and remaining proceeds from its recent public offering, which was completed in October 2010. The Company currently anticipates that the transaction will close before the end of 2010, subject to satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

A copy of the Company's press release announcing this agreement is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

The Company has deposited $8.0 million under the purchase and sale agreement (a PSA). The deposit is non-refundable except (i) in the event of a default under the PSA by the seller or (ii) as expressly otherwise provided by the PSA. Consummation of the transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including without limitation (i) the accuracy of the seller's representations and warranties as of closing; (ii) the seller's performance of its obligations under the PSA; and (iii) the absence of condemnation proceedings or casualty events. There are no assurances that the conditions of the transaction will be met or that the transaction will be completed according to the anticipated schedule or at all.

Certain statements and assumptions in this report contain or are based upon forward-looking information and are being made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties. When we use the words will likely result, may, anticipate, estimate, should, expect, believe, intend, or similar expressions, we intend to identify forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, ability to obtain a term loan secured by a mortgage on the hotel and expectations as to the expected mix of consideration to be paid and time for completing the transaction. Such statements are subject to numerous assumptions and uncertainties, many of which are outside our control. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly release the result of any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect any future events or circumstances, except as required by law.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits. Incorporated by reference to the Exhibit Index filed herewith and incorporated herein by reference.
