Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 14, 2012, we issued a press release announcing that we had entered into purchase agreements to acquire 901 Market Street in San Francisco and the Olympic Bundy Media Campus in West Los Angeles. Both acquisitions are subject to customary closing conditions.

On February 17, 2012, we entered into a definitive purchase agreement to acquire an 11.55 acre site in Los Angeles, California for $89.0 million. The property consists of four buildings containing approximately 233,600 rentable square feet. Approximately 84,200 square feet of the property has been renovated, of which 64% is currently occupied by the Rubicon Project, an online advertising technology company. We expect to spend an estimated $35.0 million in capital improvements and leasing costs repositioning the property to a creative office campus. The transaction is scheduled to close in the third quarter of 2012.

On May 11, 2012, we entered into a definitive purchase agreement to acquire 901 Market Street in San Francisco, California for $90.0 million, which we refer to as 901 Market Street. The property contains approximately 148,000 square feet of office space on five floors and approximately 63,000 square feet of retail space on the ground floor and one subterranean floor, for an aggregate of approximately 211,000 square feet. 901 Market Street is currently 61.5% occupied by such tenants as Stantec Architecture (43,362 square feet), the General Services Administration (42,811 square feet) and Marshalls (32,928 square feet). We expect to spend an estimated $12.0 million in capital improvements and leasing costs stabilizing the property. 901 Market Street is located on the corner of Fifth and Market Streets, adjacent to the Westfield San Francisco Shopping Centre and the Union Square Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) entrance. The transaction is scheduled to close in the second quarter of 2012.

The text of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.
