Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangement of Certain Officers

On May 9, 2013, Jeffrey Weeden, KeyCorp's Chief Financial Officer, announced that he will retire effective June 30, 2013. Mr. Weeden intends to work closely with Key's management to ensure a smooth and successful transition of his responsibilities. Upon his retirement, Mr. Weeden will vest pro rata in his May 19, 2011 special award of performance shares and, as an employee of Key who has attained age 55 with five years of service, be entitled to receive benefits, subject to the terms of the pertinent plans, under the company's medical, dental and vision plans; 401(k) savings plan; deferred savings plan; and second excess cash balance plan. In addition, Mr. Weeden will receive one year of salary continuation, will pro rata vest in each of his unvested long term incentive awards and will be eligible to receive a bonus equal to fifty percent of the amount payable based on Key's performance under Key's 2013 annual compensation plan. A copy of the press release announcing Mr. Weeden's retirement is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.
