On June 17, 2015, Quality Carriers, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Quality Distribution, Inc. issued the following communication to certain of its customers:

Dear Valued Customer:

We are writing to inform you of a transaction involving the corporate parent of Quality Carriers, Inc. ( Quality Carriers ). Quality Carrier s corporate parent, Quality Distribution, Inc. (Nasdaq:QLTY) ( Quality Distribution ), a North American logistics and transportation provider with market leading businesses, has entered into a definitive agreement for the acquisition of Quality Distribution by funds advised by Apax Partners, LLP. ( Apax ), a private equity firm. The transaction is expected to be completed in the third quarter of 2015. The press release announcing the transaction can be found at:

<http://investor.shareholder.com/qualitydistribution/releasedetail.cfm?ReleaseID=911494>.

Upon closing of the transaction, Quality Carrier s business will continue in the same manner as before the transaction. Quality Carriers will retain all of its current officers and employees and will continue to carry on its business in New Jersey, honoring all of its contracts. There will be no disruption of service, change in rates or other impacts to you as a customer of Quality Carriers as a result of the transaction. If you have any questions about the proposed transaction, please contact me at [redacted] at your convenience. We look forward to continuing to serve you.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains, and other written or oral statements made by or on behalf of Quality Distribution, Inc. ( Quality ) may include, forward-looking statements, within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In addition, we or our executive officers on our behalf, may from time to time make forward-looking statements in reports and other documents that are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) or in connection with oral statements made to the press, potential investors or others. Specifically, forward-looking statements may include, but are not limited to, statements relating to our future economic performance, business prospects, revenue, income, and financial condition; and statements preceded by, followed by, or that include the words expects, believes, intends, will, anticipates, and similar terms that relate to future events, performance, or results. Examples of forward-looking statements in this communication include, but are not limited to, statements about the price, terms and closing date of the proposed transaction and statements regarding shareholder and regulatory approvals. Forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results, expectations, or outcomes to differ materially from our historical experience as well as management s present expectations or projections. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: (i) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement; (ii) the inability to complete the proposed merger due to the failure to obtain the Company Requisite Vote or the failure to satisfy other conditions of the proposed merger within the proposed timeframe or at all; (iii) the failure to obtain the necessary financing arrangements as set forth in the debt and equity commitment letters delivered pursuant to the merger agreement, or the failure of the proposed merger to close for any other reason; (iv) risks related to disruption of management s attention from Quality s ongoing business operations due to the transaction; (v) the outcome of any legal proceedings, regulatory proceedings or enforcement matters that may be instituted against Quality and others relating to the merger agreement; (vi) the risk that the pendency of the proposed merger disrupts current plans and operations and the potential difficulties in employee retention as a result of the pendency of the proposed merger; (vii) the effect of the announcement of the proposed merger on Quality s relationships with its customers, operating results and business generally; and (viii) the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the proposed merger. Consider these factors carefully in evaluating the forward-looking statements. Additional factors that may cause results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements are set forth in Quality s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, which was filed with the SEC on March 13, 2015. The forward-looking statements represent Quality s views as of the date on which such statements were made and Quality undertakes no obligation to publicly update such forward-looking statements.
