Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On July 1, 2015, EnPro Industries, Inc. (the Company) completed the acquisition of the Veyance North-American air spring business, which includes facilities in Fairlawn, Ohio and San Luis Potosi, Mexico, from subsidiaries of Continental AG pursuant to an Asset and Share Purchase Agreement dated as of June 22, 2015 (the Purchase Agreement) among the Company and certain of its subsidiaries and Veyance de Mexico, S. de R.L. de C.V., Veyance de Chihuahua, S. de R.L. de C.V., Veyance Technologies Canada, Inc. and Veyance Technologies, Inc. (collectively, the Sellers), which Purchase Agreement was joined by Continental AG solely for the purpose of guaranteeing certain of the Sellers' indemnification obligations thereunder. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Company paid approximately $18.1 million in cash to the Sellers as consideration for the purchase of the acquired business, which amount is subject to a post-closing net working capital adjustment. The acquired business will become part of the Company's Stemco division within its Sealing Products segment.

The Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein. In reviewing the Purchase Agreement, please remember that it is included to provide information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any other factual or disclosure information about the parties thereto. The Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties, which have been made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement and should not in all instances be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating the risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate. Moreover, the representations and warranties as stated in the Purchase Agreement do not reflect exceptions thereto as may be set forth in separate disclosure schedules exchanged by the parties in connection with the Purchase Agreement. The representations and warranties were made only as of the date of the Purchase Agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in the Purchase Agreement. Accordingly, the representations and warranties as set forth in the Purchase Agreement alone may not describe the actual state of affairs as of the date they were made or at any other time.
