ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On November 6, 2015, Weyerhaeuser Company, a Washington corporation (Weyerhaeuser), and Plum Creek Timber Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Plum Creek), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Plum Creek will merge with and into Weyerhaeuser (the Merger) with Weyerhaeuser continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger. The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Boards of Directors of both Plum Creek and Weyerhaeuser.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the time the Merger becomes effective (the Effective Time), each share of Plum Creek common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than shares of Plum Creek common stock owned by Plum Creek as treasury stock, will be converted into the right to receive 1.60 fully paid and nonassessable Weyerhaeuser common shares, par value $1.25 per share (the Merger Consideration). No fractional Weyerhaeuser common shares will be issued in the Merger, and Plum Creek's stockholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares. It is expected that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. Federal income tax purposes.

The Merger Agreement provides that, at the Effective Time, outstanding Plum Creek stock options, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into equivalent awards with respect to Weyerhaeuser common shares, after giving effect to appropriate adjustments to reflect the consummation of the Merger. Outstanding Plum Creek restricted stock unit awards and deferred stock unit awards will be converted into equivalent equity awards with respect to Weyerhaeuser common shares. As required by their terms, outstanding Plum Creek value management awards granted prior to 2015 will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash determined by assuming that all applicable performance goals were satisfied at the greater of target level performance and actual performance over a shortened performance period ending as of the Effective Time. Outstanding Plum Creek value management awards granted following 2014 will be converted into equivalent Weyerhaeuser awards with continued service-based vesting requirements, except that the performance goals will be deemed satisfied at the greater of target level performance and actual performance over a shortened performance period ending as of the Effective Time.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, (i) the Weyerhaeuser Board of Directors will be expanded from 10 directors to 13 directors, consisting of eight directors from Weyerhaeuser and five directors from Plum Creek and (ii) Rick R. Holley, the current Chief Executive Officer of Plum Creek, will be appointed as non-executive Chairman of the Weyerhaeuser Board of Directors. Doyle R. Simons, the current Chief Executive Officer of Weyerhaeuser, will remain as Chief Executive Officer of Weyerhaeuser.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including adoption of the Merger Agreement by a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Plum Creek common stock, approval of the issuance of Weyerhaeuser common shares constituting the Merger Consideration by a majority of the common shares voted at the Weyerhaeuser shareholder meeting, the listing of the Weyerhaeuser common shares constituting the Merger Consideration on the New York Stock Exchange, the effectiveness of Weyerhaeuser's registration statement on Form S-4 and the absence of a legal restraint prohibiting the consummation of the Merger. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon the other party's representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality qualifications), the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement, the other party not having suffered a material adverse effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and the receipt by each party of customary opinions from counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of both Weyerhaeuser and Plum Creek, including covenants to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, not to engage in certain types of transactions during this interim period and to use reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary to consummate the merger as soon as reasonably possible.

Each of Weyerhaeuser and Plum Creek is subject to customary restrictions on their respective abilities to solicit alternative acquisition proposals and to provide information to, or engage in discussions with, third parties regarding such proposals, except under limited circumstances that allow the Board of Directors of each company to comply with their respective fiduciary duties.

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary termination rights for both Weyerhaeuser and Plum Creek, including (i) if the Merger is not consummated on or before September 30, 2016 or (ii) if the approval of Weyerhaeuser shareholders or Plum Creek stockholders is not obtained. The Merger Agreement further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including as a result of a change in the recommendation of a party's Board of Directors, such party may be required to pay to the other party a termination fee of $250,000,000.

The Merger Agreement and the above description of the Merger Agreement have been included to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Weyerhaeuser, Plum Creek or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made by each party to the other for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between them that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, certain representations and warranties may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to investors and may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Weyerhaeuser or Plum Creek. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Weyerhaeuser, Plum Creek or any of their respective subsidiaries, affiliates or businesses.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
