Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 14, 2017, Cardinal Financial Corporation, a Virginia corporation (Cardinal), reached an agreement with plaintiffs to resolve certain litigation initiated in response to the announcement of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the Merger Agreement), dated August 17, 2016, by and among Cardinal, United Bankshares, Inc., a West Virginia corporation (United Bankshares), and UBV Holding Company, LLC, a Virginia limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of United Bankshares (UBV). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Cardinal will merge with and into UBV (the Merger), at which time Cardinal will cease to exist and UBV will survive and continue to exist as a Virginia limited liability company.

As described in the prospectus and joint proxy statement of Cardinal and United Bankshares, dated February 13, 2017 (the Proxy Statement), on December 20, 2016, Henry Kwong, individually and purportedly on behalf of all other Cardinal shareholders, filed a putative class action complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Alexandria Division (Case No. 1:16-cv-01582-TSE-MSN), challenging the Merger. On January 11, 2017, a separate putative class action complaint was filed by Kyle Miller, individually and purportedly on behalf of all other Cardinal shareholders, in the same court (Case No. 1:17-cv-00044-TSE-MSN). By Order dated January 27, 2017, these actions were consolidated for all purposes and merged, and, on February 14, 2017, the plaintiffs filed a consolidated amended complaint. The plaintiffs generally claim that Cardinal and the Cardinal directors violated federal securities laws by filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) a materially false and misleading prospectus and joint proxy statement. The complaints seek, among other things, an order enjoining the parties from proceeding with or consummating the Merger, as well as other equitable relief or money damages in the event that the transaction is completed.

In exchange for the plaintiffs voluntarily dismissing their lawsuit, Cardinal has agreed to make additional information about the Merger available to its shareholders. The additional information is contained below in this Current Report on Form 8-K (the Current Report). The additional information should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety.

The resolution of the litigation will not affect the consideration to be paid by United Bankshares to Cardinal shareholders in connection with the Merger, or the timing of the respective special meetings of Cardinal shareholders and United Bankshares shareholders.

Cardinal denies each of the allegations in the lawsuit and believes the prior disclosures in the Proxy Statement are accurate and complete in all materials respects, and that no further disclosure is required under applicable law. However, to avoid the risk that the lawsuit may delay or otherwise adversely affect the consummation of the Merger, and to minimize the expense and burden of defending such action, Cardinal has agreed to make certain supplemental disclosures related to the proposed Merger, all of which are set forth below. Nothing in this Current Report shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable law of any of the disclosures set forth herein.

Independent and unrelated to the litigation, Cardinal and United Bankshares clarify the disclosure on page 114 relating to the receipt of regulatory approvals as set forth below.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE PROXY STATEMENT

The following information supplements the Proxy Statement and should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. All page references in the information below are to pages in the Proxy Statement, and terms used in this Current Report have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement, unless otherwise defined herein.

The following disclosure replaces the second sentence in the first full paragraph of page 75:

The Cardinal Peer Group consisted of publicly-traded holding companies, banks and thrifts headquartered in Delaware, Washington, DC, Maryland and Virginia with total assets between $2.0 billion and $10.0 billion, excluding certain companies as described below. Xenith Bankshares, Inc. was excluded from the Cardinal Peer Group because it was the subject of an announced merger transaction. The Bancorp, Inc. was excluded from the Cardinal Peer Group because Sandler O'Neill determined that it was not comparable due to its unique business model.

The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 6.7% to 11.7%, which took into consideration an implied cost of equity of 5.8% derived from a capital asset pricing model-based calculation and were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Cardinal common stock.

The following disclosure is inserted prior to the final sentence of the first full paragraph on page 96:

Sandler O'Neill's financial analysis considered a number of factors, including, among others, the anticipated issuance by United Bankshares of a certain amount of perpetual preferred stock. The fact that United Bankshares ultimately issued common stock, rather than perpetual preferred stock, does not adversely affect Sandler's financial analysis.

The following disclosure replaces the first sentence of the fourth full paragraph on page 114:

As of the date of this prospectus and joint proxy statement, the merger and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement have been approved by the Virginia Bureau of Financial Institutions but have not yet been approved by the Federal Reserve.
