

OLD NATIONAL BANCORP /IN/
Form 425
July 24, 2018

Filed by Old National Bancorp

Pursuant to Rule 425 under the Securities Act of 1933

Subject Company: Klein Financial, Inc.

The following excerpts relating to Old National Bancorp's (Old National's) pending acquisition of Klein Financial, Inc. (Klein) are from the transcript of a conference call held by executive officers of Old National on July 23, 2018, in connection with Old National's announcement of its financial results for the quarter ended June 30, 2018.

Bob Jones, Old National Bancorp Chairman and CEO:

During the quarter, we were quite busy in the Minnesota market. We executed our conversion of what was Anchor Bank successfully and announced our new partnership with Klein Bank. Performance for the quarter for Minnesota was very strong as they led our commercial growth with over $58 Million dollars.

We are very excited about the opportunity as we bring these two teams together to serve the Twin Cities, Mankato and The West Market.

Jim Ryan, Old National Bancorp Senior EVP and Chief Financial Officer:

We continued to show strong commercial growth funded by low cost deposits, remixed our Balance Sheet into more productive earning assets, drove positive operating leverage, maintained strong credit metrics and sound risk management, grew tangible book value per share by 7% annualized, and continued our expansion strategy into higher growth markets with our Klein Bank partnership.

Finally, with respect to Anchor performance, we continue to see great results. From day 1 to the end of second quarter, loans are up 13% on an annualized basis. This is the second partnership in a row that has seen robust loan growth right out of the gate. We expect the addition of Klein, a second great platform in the Minneapolis market, to bolster an already strong presence.

Questions & Answers:

Q: Chris McGratty, KBW:

Maybe just a question on the Balance Sheet. Obviously, the quarter was impacted by some seasonal deposit flows. But can you remind us the target on the loan to deposit? You still have some flexibility to peers, but right around 90%?

A: Bob Jones:

Yes. We've never really come out with a target. I think anytime we get it above 100, we'd have to take a bit of a look at it, but with Klein coming on, they've got such a low loan-to-deposit ratio, we're comfortable that even with the growth we're seeing we're going to be well under that as we go forward.

Q: Nathan Race, Piper Jaffray:

Got it. And I imagine that will stay relatively flat with Klein coming on later this year?

A: Jim Ryan:

It will, and then but you know the nice benefit of doing more C&I lending and having that growth is it tends to be a little shorter and a little bit more variable. So just generally speaking, would like to see that. Klein's asset sensitivity is pretty similar to ours slightly asset sensitive. So, it will kind of maintain our current asset sensitivity position.
