Proposal to increase dividend by 6% to EUR 0.85 per share; start of new EUR 1.5 billion share buyback program
Frans van Houten, CEO

We continued to make progress during the year and delivered 5% comparable sales growth in the fourth quarter, with good mid- single-digit growth in our Diagnosis & Treatment businesses, low-single-digit growth in our Personal Health businesses in line with our expectations for this year, and higher IP royalties. I am encouraged by the comparable order intake growth in the Connected Care & Health Informatics businesses, which drove the 10% comparable order intake growth for the Group. The Adjusted EBITA margin improved by 70 basis points, despite a 40 basis points adverse currency effect.

For the full year, we delivered on our targets, with 5% comparable sales growth, 100 basis points improvement in the Adjusted EBITA margin, and a free cash flow of EUR 1.2 billion, excluding payments related to the US Pension Fund liability de-risking and premium payments related to an early bond redemption. We saw rising demand for our innovative product and solutions portfolio, resulting in 10% comparable order intake growth for the year, with good growth across the world.

Our continued focus on innovation combined with our growing order book provide a solid base to further strengthen our leadership position as a focused health technology company. This confidence enables us to propose a 6% dividend increase to EUR 0.85 per share and to announce a new EUR 1.5 billion share buyback program.

As Philips continues to navigate global geopolitical challenges and market volatility, for which we are taking necessary actions, we expect our performance momentum to improve in the course of the year. We reaffirm our overall targets of 4-6% comparable sales growth and an Adjusted EBITA margin improvement of 100 basis points on average per year for the 2017-2020 period.

Business segment performance

In the quarter, the Diagnosis & Treatment businesses recorded 5% comparable sales growth, driven by double-digit growth in Image-Guided Therapy. Comparable order intake showed a low-single-digit increase on the back of double-digit growth in Q4 2017. The order intake growth was driven by double-digit growth in Diagnostic Imaging. The Adjusted EBITA margin increased to 15.9%, mainly due to growth and operational improvements. For the full year, the Diagnosis & Treatment businesses delivered 7% comparable sales growth and an increased Adjusted EBITA margin of 11.6%.

The Connected Care & Health Informatics businesses delivered a double-digit increase in comparable order intake in the fourth quarter, driven by Monitoring & Analytics and Healthcare Informatics. Comparable sales remained flat, with low-single-digit growth in Monitoring & Analytics. The Adjusted EBITA margin decreased to 16.1%, mainly due to lower growth. For the full year, the Connected Care & Health Informatics businesses' sales were in line with 2017 on a comparable basis, while the Adjusted EBITA margin decreased to 11.1%.

The Personal Health businesses delivered comparable sales growth of 3% in Q4 2018, driven by high-single-digit growth in Sleep & Respiratory Care. The Adjusted EBITA margin decreased to 18.6%, reflecting lower growth. For the full year, the Personal Health businesses delivered 3% comparable sales growth and an increase in Adjusted EBITA margin to 16.8%.

Philips' ongoing focus on innovation and strategic partnerships resulted in the following highlights in the quarter:

New York-Presbyterian Hospital selected Philips' IntelliSpace Enterprise Edition as its in-hospital clinical decision support platform to help address the Quadruple Aim of improved patient experience, better health outcomes, improved staff experience, and lower cost of care across its sites.

Continuing the positive momentum of the Diagnostic Imaging business in China, the company received CFDA approval to market its advanced Vereos Digital PET/CT in China. Globally, Philips saw strong demand for its recently launched Ingenia Elition MRI system and Ingenia Ambition MRI system, which enables helium-free operations as well as featuring Compressed SENSE software, a breakthrough acceleration technique speeding up MR exams by up to 50%.

Philips entered into multiple new agreements in the US and Europe. For example, the company announced an agreement with County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust in the UK to provide imaging and cardiology solutions across their sites, further building on the large number of long-term strategic partnerships.

Leveraging Philips' expertise in remote monitoring solutions, the company partnered with Dartmouth-Hitchcock Health in the US to implement Philips' eICU technology at their hospital sites. Following the success of similar programs across the globe, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Health is the latest health system to incorporate this telehealth model to improve critical care support across multiple sites.

Highlighting the success of Philips' patient-centric product designs in sleep care, Philips has sold more than 10 million DreamWear CPAP masks and cushions in just three years after the Dream Family platform introduction, growing the DreamWear patient interface sales faster than the market.

Philips launched an extension to the successful Azurion image-guided therapy platform, setting a new standard in the industry. Azurion with FlexArm includes innovations for optimal visualization across the whole patient in 2D and 3D to simplify and enhance a broad range of procedures. Additionally, Philips announced the enrolment of the first patient in the new Stellarex ILLUMENATE Below-the-Knee (BTK) Investigational Device Exemption (IDE) study in the US.

Philips became the first health technology company to have its new CO2 emission targets accepted by the Science Based Targets initiative, a collaboration between the UN Global Compact, the World Resources Institute and the World Wide Fund for Nature aimed at driving ambitious corporate climate action.

Cost savings

In the fourth quarter, procurement savings amounted to EUR 79 million. Overhead and other productivity programs delivered savings of EUR 56 million, contributing to annual savings of EUR 466 million in 2018.

Capital allocation

A proposal will be submitted to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, to be held on May 9, 2019, to declare a distribution of EUR 0.85 per common share, in cash or shares at the option of the shareholder, against the net income for 2018.

On June 28, 2017, Philips announced its current EUR 1.5 billion share buyback program for capital reduction purposes. Under that program, which was initiated in the third quarter of 2017, Philips repurchased shares in the open market and entered into a number of forward transactions, some of which are yet to be settled in Q2 2019. Further details can be found [here].

Today, Philips announces a new share buyback program for an amount of up to EUR 1.5 billion. At the current share price, the program represents a total of approximately 46 million shares. Philips expects to start the program in the first quarter of 2019 and to complete it within two years. Updates on the progress of the program will be provided through press releases and further details will be available [here].

As the program will be initiated for capital reduction purposes, Philips intends to cancel all of the shares acquired under the program. The program will be executed by an intermediary to allow for purchases in the open market during both open and closed periods, in accordance with the EU Market Abuse Regulation.

Reporting segment re-alignment as of Q1 2019

To further align its businesses with customer needs, Philips has re-aligned its three reporting segments Diagnosis & Treatment, Connected Care & Health Informatics, and Personal Health. Effective as of January 1, 2019, the most notable changes are the shift of the Sleep & Respiratory Care business from the Personal Health segment to the renamed Connected Care segment, and the shift of most of the Healthcare Informatics business from the Connected Care segment to the Diagnosis & Treatment segment. The Group targets for the 2017-2020 period remain unchanged.

Regulatory update

Philips has continued to make progress towards fulfilling its obligations under the Consent Decree, which is primarily focused on defibrillator manufacturing in the US. Currently Philips is awaiting feedback from the FDA, which has been postponed due to the recent partial US Government shutdown.

Signify

Philips' shareholding in Signify is currently 16.5% of Signify's issued share capital. With Philips CFO Abhijit Bhattacharya stepping down from the Supervisory Board of Signify as of December 31, 2018, the remaining stake is presented as a financial asset at market value, based on Signify's stock price. Value adjustments of the retained interest from this date will be recognized in Other Comprehensive Income outside of the Income statement. For Q4 2018, value adjustments of the retained interest are shown within Discontinued operations. Philips reiterates its intention to fully sell down its stake over time.

Forward-looking statements and other important information

Forward-looking statements

This document and the related oral presentation, including responses to questions following the presentation, contain certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and business of Philips and certain of the plans and objectives of Philips with respect to these items. Examples of forward-looking statements include statements made about the strategy, estimates of sales growth, future Adjusted EBITA, future developments in Philips' organic business and the completion of acquisitions and divestments. By their nature, these statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances and there are many factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these statements.

These factors include but are not limited to: global economic and business conditions; political instability, including developments within the European Union, with adverse impact on financial markets; the successful implementation of Philips' strategy and the ability to realize the benefits of this strategy; the ability to develop and market new products; changes in legislation; legal claims; changes in currency exchange rates and interest rates; future changes in tax rates and regulations, including trade tariffs; pension costs and actuarial assumptions; changes in raw materials prices; changes in employee costs; the ability to identify and complete successful acquisitions, and to integrate those acquisitions into the business, the ability to successfully exit certain businesses or restructure the operations; the rate of technological changes; cyber-attacks, breaches of cybersecurity; political, economic and other developments in countries where Philips operates; industry consolidation and competition; and the state of international capital markets as they may affect the timing and nature of the disposal by Philips of its remaining interests in Signify. As a result, Philips' actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals and expectations set forth in such forward-looking statements. For a discussion of factors that could cause future results to differ from such forward-looking statements, see the Risk management chapter included in the Annual Report 2017.

Third-party market share data

Statements regarding market share, including those regarding Philips' competitive position, contained in this document are based on outside sources such as research institutes, industry and dealer panels in combination with management estimates. Where information is not yet available to Philips, those statements may also be based on estimates and projections prepared by outside sources or management.

Rankings are based on sales unless otherwise stated.

Use of non-IFRS information

In presenting and discussing the Philips Group's financial position, operating results and cash flows, management uses certain non-IFRS financial measures. These non-IFRS financial measures should not be viewed in isolation as alternatives to the equivalent IFRS measures and should be used in conjunction with the most directly comparable IFRS measures. Non-IFRS financial measures do not have standardized meaning under IFRS and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. A reconciliation of these non-IFRS measures to the most directly comparable IFRS measures is contained in this document. Further information on non-IFRS measures can be found in the Annual Report 2017.

Use of fair value information

In presenting the Philips Group's financial position, fair values are used for the measurement of various items in accordance with the applicable accounting standards. These fair values are based on market prices, where available, and are obtained from sources that are deemed to be reliable.

Readers are cautioned that these values are subject to changes over time and are only valid at the balance sheet date. When quoted prices or observable market data are not readily available, fair values are estimated using appropriate valuation models and unobservable inputs. Such fair value estimates require management to make significant assumptions with respect to future developments, which are inherently uncertain and may therefore deviate from actual developments. Critical assumptions used are disclosed in the Annual Report 2017 and Semi-Annual report 2018. In certain cases independent valuations are obtained to support management's determination of fair values.

Reconciliation of non-IFRS information

Certain non-IFRS financial measures are presented when discussing the Philips Group's performance:

Comparable sales growth

EBITA

Adjusted EBITA

Adjusted income from continuing operations attributable to shareholders

Adjusted income from continuing operations attributable to shareholders per common share (in EUR) - diluted

Adjusted EBITDA

Free cash flow

Net debt : group equity ratio

Comparable order intake

The term Adjusted income from continuing operations attributable to shareholders represents income from continuing operations less continuing operations non-controlling interests, excluding amortization and impairment of acquired intangible assets, impairment of goodwill, gains or losses from restructuring costs and acquisition-related charges, other items, adjustments to net finance expenses, adjustments to investments in associates and the tax impact of the adjusted items. Shareholders refers to shareholders of Koninklijke Philips N.V.

Adjusted income from continuing operations attributable to shareholders per common share (in EUR) - diluted is calculated by dividing the Adjusted income from continuing operations attributable to shareholders by the diluted weighted average number of shares (after deduction of treasury shares) outstanding during the period, as defined in Note 1, Significant accounting policies, earnings per share section of the Annual Report 2017. For further details on these two new non-IFRS information metrics being presented by Philips, refer to the to be published 2018 Annual Report, Reconciliation of non-IFRS information section.

For the definitions of the remaining non-IFRS financial measures listed above, refer to chapter 5, Reconciliation of non-IFRS information, of the Annual Report 2017.
