Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously reported in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on September 5, 2014, Chart Acquisition Corp. (the “Company” or “Chart”) received a written notice on September 2, 2014 from the staff of the Listing Qualifications Department of the NASDAQ Stock Market (“NASDAQ”) indicating that the Company was not in compliance with Listing Rule 5550(a)(3), which requires the Company to maintain a minimum of 300 public holders for continued listing on the NASDAQ Capital Market, and that NASDAQ had determined to initiate procedures to delist the Company’s securities. The Company appealed such determination to a hearings panel (the “Panel”) and on October 23, 2014, NASDAQ advised the Company that the Panel had granted the request for continued listing subject to completing its business combination (the “Business Combination”) and achieving compliance with all NASDAQ initial listing requirements, including but not limited to the minimum shareholder requirements, by March 4, 2015.

On March 2, 2015, the Company received a letter from NASDAQ stating that the Panel had determined to delist the Company’s securities from NASDAQ, and will suspend trading in the Company’s securities effective at the open of business on March 5, 2015, due to the Company’s failure to demonstrate compliance with the minimum shareholder requirements. NASDAQ further indicated that it would complete the delisting action by filing a Form 25 Notification of Delisting with the SEC after all applicable appeal periods have lapsed. The Company intends to appeal the Panel’s delisting determination to the NASDAQ Listing and Hearing Review Council.

The Company expects that its common stock, warrants and units will begin trading on the OTCQB market under the ticker symbols “CACG,” “CACGW” and “CACGU,” respectively, effective with the open of the market on March 5, 2015. The OTCQB market is generally limited to companies that are subject to, and current in, SEC reporting obligations.
