Campos Basin platforms resume production

Rio de Janeiro, July 14 2008 PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, [Bovespa: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, Latibex: XPBR/XPBRA, BCBA: APBR/APBRA], a Brazilian international energy company, announces that:

- Production has been nearly normalized at the Campos Basin. At 6 PM this afternoon, the Company's production had reached more than 96% of its capacity. The reduction is 63,000 barrels/day.
- The Company's Contingency Plan was implemented successfully, and the contingency team is qualified to maintain production and ensure platform security.
- Drilling rigs are operating normally.
- Petrobras is waiting for the labor union to manifest itself regarding the proposal that was presented last Thursday (07/10).
- The Company emphasizes, once again, the negotiation table must prevail as the most appropriate means to drive a good relationship between the company, its employees, and the labor unions.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
