Coca-Cola FEMSA and Grupo CIMSA reach an agreement to merge their bottling operations in Mexico City, Mexico – September 19, 2011 – Coca-Cola FEMSA, S.A.B. de C.V. (NYSE: KOF) (“Coca-Cola FEMSA” or the “Company”), the largest public bottler of Coca-Cola in the world in terms of sales volume, and Corporación de los Ángeles, S.A. de C.V. (“Grupo CIMSA”) have agreed to merge their beverage businesses. Grupo CIMSA is a Mexican family-owned Coca-Cola bottler, operates mainly in the states of Morelos and Oaxaca, as well as in parts of the states of Guerrero and Michoacan. Grupo CIMSA’s bottling operations are expected to sell 159 million unit cases in Mexico in 2011.

The merger agreement has been approved by Coca-Cola FEMSA’s Board of Directors and the completion of confirmatory legal, financial, and operating due diligence and to regulatory and corporate approvals, among them the approval of The Coca-Cola Company’s Comisión Federal de Competencia, the Mexican antitrust authority. Both Coca-Cola FEMSA and Grupo CIMSA will call for an extraordinary shareholders meeting for the approval of this merger.

The aggregate enterprise value of this transaction is Ps. 11,000 million. As a result of this transaction, Grupo CIMSA’s shareholders will receive 75.4 million newly issued KOF series L shares valued at Ps. 118.00 per share, calculated on the average closing price of the KOF series L share on the NYSE over 27 trading days prior to the announcement of this agreement. The number of shares could vary within agreed upon thresholds pending the completion of the due diligence process. As a result of this transaction, Coca-Cola FEMSA will assume approximately Ps. 2,100 million in net debt.

In addition, through this transaction, Coca-Cola FEMSA will become the owner of a 13.5% interest in Promotora Industrial Azucarera, S.A. de C.V. (“PIASA”), a participant in the Mexican sugar market.

“We continue to move in the right direction. This merger with one of the largest franchise bottlers in the Mexican Coca-Cola bottling system confirms that our Company represents an attractive, diversified investment vehicle for families that have been in the beverage industry for over 50 years. This new partnership will leverage the geographic fit of our contiguous territories, our complementary practices, and the strength of our combined multi-category portfolio of beverages. We feel confident to receive this vote of confidence from Grupo CIMSA’s shareholders, and we remain committed to responsibly manage our business to continue growing together and to deliver increased value to our shareholders,” said Carlos Salazar Lomelin, Chief Executive Officer of the Company.
