Gannon ("Mr. Gannon") as the Company's Vice President & Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Gannon has expressed an interest in pursuing opportunities outside the Company's financial organization.

In connection with the transition of leadership of the Company's financial organization, the Company and Mr. Gannon have entered into an Employment Transition Agreement dated October 25, 2006 (the "Transition Agreement"). Under the Transition Agreement, Mr. Gannon is required to make himself available to assist Ms. Bailey in her transition into the role of the Company's Chief Financial Officer and will be entitled to the severance and benefits describe below only if he does make himself available for such assistance. In addition, Mr. Gannon and the Company will seek to identify and evaluate alternative opportunities within the Company that might take full advantage of Mr. Gannon's unique skills and experience and be consistent with Mr. Gannon's own personal career aspirations. If the Company and Mr. Gannon are unable mutually to agree on a suitable alternative opportunity for Mr. Gannon by January 2, 2007, then Mr. Gannon's employment with the Company will then terminate and Mr. Gannon will become entitled to a severance package for the period from January 3, 2007 to December 31, 2007 (the "Severance Period") consisting of the following: (a) twice-monthly payments of $15,208 until the earlier of December 31, 2007 or the date of Mr. Gannon's death, (b) a lump sum amount of $182,500 paid on or before December 31, 2007, and (c) reimbursement for payments made for continued health benefits coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act, up to the amount of the Company's current benefit contributions on his behalf, throughout the Severance Period and for six months thereafter.

Mr. Gannon will be entitled for a period of 90 days after the filing of the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006 to exercise options vested as of the date his employment terminates and to receive his bonus payment for 2006 under the annual incentive plan and any amounts payable with respect to the performance shares he was awarded for the 2004-2006 performance period in accordance with the terms of the Company's Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan. In the Transition Agreement, Mr. Gannon provides the Company with a waiver of any rights to other severance benefits and agrees not to engage in certain activities which compete with the Company's products and services for a period ending one year following the end of the Severance Period and to continued confidentiality obligations. The Company and Mr. Gannon have agreed to mutual non-disparagement provisions.
