Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Effective October 3, 2007, the Board of Directors of Corning Incorporated amended Article V of the Company's By-Laws to allow for the issuance of uncertificated shares. The Board of Directors adopted these amendments to comply with the New York Stock Exchange requirement that securities listed on the NYSE be eligible for direct registration by January 2008. The Direct Registration System allows investors to have shares registered in their own names by book-entry. Book-entry allows shares to be owned, recorded and transferred electronically on a system currently administered by The Depository Trust Company without issuance of physical stock certificates, which enables investors and broker-dealers to effect transactions without the risks and delays associated with transferring physical certificates. Investors retain other aspects of direct ownership such as voting rights. As amended, the By-Laws permit investors with shares registered in their names by book entry to obtain a certificate representing the shares by written request to the Company's registrar or transfer agent. Prior to this amendment, the By-Laws were silent on the issuance of uncertificated shares.

The full text of the amendments to the By-Laws is filed as an Exhibit.
