EXPLANATORY NOTE:

On November 9, 2010, Dynegy Inc. ("Dynegy") commenced mailing a letter to stockholders reiterating the recommendation of the Dynegy Board of Directors that they vote in favor of the previously announced Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 13, 2010 (the "Merger Agreement"), providing for the acquisition of Dynegy by Denali Parent Inc. (the "Merger"), an affiliate of The Blackstone Group L.P. ("Blackstone"). A copy of the letter is included below.

 ISS – THE NATION’S LEADING INDEPENDENT PROXY ADVISORY FIRM – RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE BLACKSTONE TRANSACTION ***

November 8, 2010

Dear Stockholders:

I am pleased to tell you that Institutional Shareholder Services (“ISS”), the nation’s leading independent proxy advisory firm, issued a report on November 7, 2010 recommending that Dynegy stockholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement with an affiliate of The Blackstone Group L.P. at Dynegy’s November 17, 2010 Special Meeting of Stockholders. The recommendations of ISS are relied upon by hundreds of major institutional investment firms, mutual funds and other fiduciaries throughout the country.

In its report, ISS concludes that Blackstone’s premium offer is fair to Dynegy stockholders:¹

“Based on the lack of any competing bids from the go-shop process, moreover, as well as our own analysis of the likely stand-alone value of the stock without this transaction, we believe the offer represents a fair price with a reasonable premium, and recommend shareholders vote FOR the merger.”

ISS recognizes that Dynegy continues to face challenges, many of which are beyond its control, including low and declining commodity prices and continued economic weakness, and commented on Dynegy’s stand-alone prospects absent the Blackstone transaction:

“[F]undamentals seem to have deteriorated since announcement, with the average price for natural gas on the 5-year forward curve having decreased 7.1% and analysts having cut their estimates. Based on the historical relationship with peers and the current consensus 2011 EBITDA estimates, the stock standalone value would be $2.66.”

It is important for you to know that Blackstone’s $4.50 per share cash offer represents a 69% premium to ISS’s estimated share price of $2.66 per share for Dynegy on a stand-alone basis.

ISS affirms your Board’s recommendation that stockholders vote FOR and APPROVE the Blackstone transaction:

“In aggregate - the substantial detail buttressing the company’s assertions, the continued deterioration in natural gas price forecasts, and the concurrence of many equity analysts - we believe the strategic rationale for the sale is credible.”
