ITEM 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On August 1, 2012, Pall Corporation (the “Company”) announced that it completed the sale of the assets relating to its blood collection, filtration and processing product lines (the “Product Lines” and such transaction, the “Transaction”) to Haemonetics Corporation (“Haemonetics”). The Company had previously announced that on April 28, 2012, it had entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement wherein the Company agreed to sell to Haemonetics substantially all of its assets related to the Product Lines. As part of the Transaction, the Company transferred to Haemonetics the Product Lines manufacturing facilities in Covina, California, Tijuana, Mexico and Ascoli, Italy, and a portion of the Company's manufacturing operations in Fajardo, Puerto Rico. In connection with the transfer of the Product Lines operations in Tijuana, Mexico, the Company transferred to Haemonetics all of the outstanding equity interests in Pall Mexico Manufacturing, S. de R.L. de C.V.

Separate from these manufacturing facilities, the Company will also transfer related blood media manufacturing capacity to Haemonetics and will construct and install for Haemonetics a media manufacturing line in Puerto Rico. That process is expected to be completed by the Company’s fiscal year 2016. Until that time, the Company will provide the media components to Haemonetics under a supply agreement.

At the closing of the Transaction, subject to post-closing adjustments, the Company received approximately $535 million in cash consideration. An additional $15 million has been held back, and will be payable upon delivery by the Company and acceptance by Haemonetics of the new media manufacturing line.
