Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On January 16, 2015, Quad/Graphics, Inc. (“Quad/Graphics”), Courier Corporation (“Courier”), Max Sub, Inc., a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Quad/Graphics (“Merger Sub”), and QGBC, LLC, a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Quad/Graphics (“Merger LLC”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which, subject to satisfaction or waiver of the conditions therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into Courier (the “Merger”), with Courier being the surviving company, immediately followed by a merger of Courier with and into Merger LLC (the “LLC Merger”, and together with the Merger, the “Mergers”), with Merger LLC being the surviving company, surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Quad/Graphics.

Subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of Quad/Graphics and Courier, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), each share of Courier common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder, either (i) $20.50 in cash, without interest (the “Cash Consideration”), or (ii) 0.9301 shares of Quad/Graphics class A common stock, without interest (the “Stock Consideration”, and together with the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”), subject to proration in the event that Courier’s stockholders elect to receive more than 54% cash or more than 46% stock. Quad/Graphics will pay an aggregate amount consisting of approximately $129 million in cash and approximately 4.8 million shares of its class A common stock.

At the Effective Time, each outstanding option to purchase Courier common stock, whether or not exercisable, shall be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a lump sum cash payment (without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes) equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of (A) the Cash Consideration over (B) the per share exercise price for such Courier option and (ii) the total number of shares underlying such Courier option. At the Effective Time, each Courier restricted stock award shall be cancelled and converted into only the right to receive a lump-sum cash payment (without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes) equal to (i) the product of (A) the Cash Consideration and (B) the number of shares underlying such restricted stock award, plus (ii) pursuant to the applicable award documents, a cash tax assistance payment equal to 30% of the value of the vested restricted stock.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of Courier and Quad/Graphics, including, among others, (i) covenants by Courier to conduct its business in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Mergers and not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period and (ii) representations and warranties of Quad/Graphics as to its capitalization and available cash. Courier has also agreed not to solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or, subject to certain exceptions that permit Courier’s board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties, enter into discussions concerning, or furnish non-public information in connection with, any proposals for alternative business combination transactions. The board of directors of Courier has unanimously adopted resolutions recommending the approval of the Merger Agreement by Courier’s stockholders and has agreed to hold a stockholder meeting to consider and vote upon the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement.

The Mergers are conditioned upon, among other things, (i) adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by the stockholders of Courier, (ii) the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and any other applicable antitrust laws and (iii) the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) with respect to the shares of Quad/Graphics class A common stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger, as well as other customary conditions.

The obligation of each party to consummate the Mergers is also conditioned upon the other party's representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality exceptions), the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement and the other party having not suffered a material adverse effect.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Quad/Graphics and Courier and provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Courier must pay Quad/Graphics a termination fee in an amount equal to $10 million.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2 hereto and is hereby incorporated into this report by reference. The Merger Agreement, which has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any other factual information about Courier or Quad/Graphics, Merger Sub or Merger LLC, contains representations and warranties of each of Courier and Quad/Graphics, Merger Sub and Merger LLC. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement, including information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with entering into the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances, as they were made only as of a specific date and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. In addition, certain representations and warranties may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to shareholders or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters of fact.

Voting Agreements

Simultaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, each director and executive officer of Courier (and certain related trusts) entered into separate voting agreements with Quad/Graphics (collectively, the “Voting Agreements”) pursuant to which such parties have agreed, among other things, to vote their respective shares of Courier common stock for the approval of the Merger Agreement. The parties signing the Voting Agreements currently own an aggregate of approximately 9.64% of the outstanding Courier shares. The Voting Agreements terminate upon the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with their terms. The foregoing description of the Voting Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of Voting Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99 hereto and is hereby incorporated into this report by reference.
