Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On May 24, 2016, Exterran Corporation (the “Company”) received a notice from the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) indicating that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE’s continued listing requirements under the timely filing criteria established in Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual as a result of its failure to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2016 (the “Form 10-Q”).

As previously disclosed, the Company was unable to timely file the Form 10-Q with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) because of the Company’s ongoing internal investigation by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors into certain accounting items related to its Belleli Energy subsidiary.

The NYSE informed the Company that, under the NYSE rules, the Company will have six months from May 16, 2016 to file the Form 10-Q with the SEC. The Company can regain compliance with the NYSE listing standards at any time before that date by filing the Form 10-Q with the SEC. If the Company fails to file the Form 10-Q before the NYSE’s compliance deadline, the NYSE may grant, at its discretion, an extension of up to six additional months for the Company to regain compliance, depending on the specific circumstances.

On May 25, 2016, the Company issued a press release pertaining to the NYSE non-compliance letter referenced above. A copy of that press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
