Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 5, 2014, WesBanco, Inc. entered into a Committed Line of Credit Note and Letter Agreement (the “Facility”), dated September 5, 2014 with PNC Bank, National Association providing for aggregate outstanding borrowings up to $25.0 million with an expiration date of September 4, 2015.

The Facility provides for revolving advances and a one-time election to convert all or a portion of the outstanding principal into a term loan (the “Conversion Amount”) which may be repaid in consecutive monthly installments over two years following the conversion date. The principal amount available to be borrowed under the Line of Credit will be permanently reduced by the Conversion Amount and as principal is repaid on the term loan it cannot be re-borrowed.

Under the Facility, outstanding advances and any term loan bear interest generally at an adjusted LIBOR rate and require the payment of consecutive quarterly installments of interest.

The Facility also requires WesBanco to maintain on a consolidated basis a return on average assets of at least 0.70%, and maintain unencumbered cash and marketable securities in an amount not less than $12.0 million. Additionally, the Facility requires WesBanco and WesBanco Bank Inc., to maintain an adjusted Texas Ratio of not more than 25% and maintain, on a consolidated basis, Total Risk-Based Capital Ratio, Tier 1 Risk-Based Capital Ratio and Tier 1 Leverage Ratio at levels considered “well capitalized” as defined by regulatory guidelines, but in no event shall the ratios be less than 12.0%, 10.0%, and 7.0%, respectively. The Facility also contains various other conditions precedent to borrowing and affirmative and negative covenants.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Facility is not complete and is qualified in all respects by the actual provisions of the Facility, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
