Dear Shareholder:

We are soliciting your support in opposing a classified board stockholder proposal to be voted on at placeCityCorning's Annual Meeting on April 26, 2007, as well as your support for nominees for election to the board of directors. We wanted to summarize the following items as you consider your vote:

- o Overview of our Strategy
- o Classified Board Proposal
- o Compensation (CD&A)

Corporate Strategy ------Corning has a distinctive identity.

- o Corning is the world leader in specialty glass and ceramics.
- We create and make keystone components that enable high-technology systems in multiple markets.
- We succeed through sustained investment in R&D, over 150 years of materials science and process engineering knowledge, and a distinctive collaborative culture.

Corporate Strategy -----Framework.

- o We grow through global innovation.
 - We understand the implications of this growth strategy:
 - Requires deep scientific and technical talent.
 - Long product development cycles.
 - High capital investment and operating leverage.
 - Growth surges driven by substitution curves of new systems.
- So we proactively seek to provide balance and stability.
 Align our financial strategy with our growth strategy.
- o While always Living our Values.

Corporate Strategy

 \cap

We've aligned our culture and leadership approach.

- o Deliver near-term performance while investing for future growth.
 - Driveoperational excellence across all businesses and functions.
 - Nurture earlystage research and innovation.
 - Select and pace promising projects ... knowing that not all will succeed.
 - Decide when to place "big bets" on product and process development.
- Consistent leadership with deep understanding of our innovation recipe and business model.
- o The Board of Directors is an important part of this leadership approach.

Corporate Strategy

The Board is an important part of our leadership approach.

- o What's important?
 - Consistency over time.
 - Diverse knowledge and experiences.
 - Commitment to understanding Corning's technology.
 - Judgment to make and support "big bets".
- Both our Board and management believe a classified board structure is well aligned with our corporate strategy.

Classified Board Proposal

- 2006 shareholder proposal.
- Results: 72.5% yes/no votes cast in favor; 55.6% of outstanding shares.
- o Board reconsideration.

0

- Continue to believe classified board is best for Corning.

Classified Board

- o 12 independent (external) directors (year-end 2006).
- o Five directors' terms expire every 3 years.
- o Enhances Board's ability to develop and execute long-term strategy.
- o Ensures ongoing independence of the company.

Classified Board

- o Major innovation requires consistent and patient R&D funding.
- o Our "innovation recipe" requires:
 - Attracting and retaining the best scientific talent.
 - Persistent nurturing of the discovery process.
 - Investing significant capital for manufacturing.
- o A stable BOD helps foster consistency necessary for innovation over
