Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 24, 2004, Neurologix Research, Inc. (the "Company"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Registrant, and Cornell University for its Medical College (the "Medical College") entered into an amendment (the "Amendment") to the Clinical Study Agreement, dated July 2, 2003.

Pursuant to the Amendment, the Company will fund scientific studies conducted by the Medical College in the Laboratory of Molecular Neurosurgery (the "Scientific Studies") under the direction of Dr. Michael G. Kaplitt. The scope of the Scientific Studies has been expanded in the Amendment, and will be conducted from September 1, 2004 through August 31, 2007, with possible one year extensions by mutual written agreement of both parties. The Medical College has granted the Company a sixty (60) day exclusive right and option to negotiate with the Medical College for an exclusive, worldwide right and license to make, have made, use and sell commercial products embodying any inventions conceived or first reduced to practice by the Medical College in the course of its scientific work on behalf of the Company. The Company will pay the Medical College $135,000 per year for the duration of the Scientific Studies.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 28, 2004, the Company issued a press release regarding the favorable review of its clinical trial protocol presented to the National Institute of Health's Recombinant DNA Advisory Committee (RAC) for NLX-E201, the Company's gene therapy product for the treatment of intractable temporal lobe epilepsy. Such press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
