On October 18, 2013, RCM Technologies, Inc., a Nevada corporation (“RCM” or the “Company”), filed a preliminary proxy statement (the “Preliminary Proxy Statement”) with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) in connection with its solicitation of proxies to be used at RCM’s 2013 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and at any and all adjournments or postponements thereof (the “2013 Annual Meeting”).

Press Release Dated October 21, 2013

Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is RCM’s press release, dated October 21, 2013, announcing that RCM’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) had unanimously voted to approve a number of significant corporate governance enhancements to strengthen the functioning of the Board and its ability to serve the long-term interests of stockholders. These enhancements, which are the results of a comprehensive process conducted by the Board, in conjunction with its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, to identify best practices in corporate governance and obtain input from stockholders as part of a continuing dialogue, included amendments to RCM’s Amended and Restated Bylaws to (i) declassify the Board so that, beginning with directors elected at the 2013 Annual Meeting, directors shall serve until the next annual meeting and until such directors’ successors have been elected and qualified, and (ii) adopt a majority vote standard (rather than the current plurality standard) for the election of directors in uncontested elections, retaining plurality voting for contested meetings of stockholders. Other corporate governance enhancements included the adoption of stock ownership guidelines for RCM’s directors and executive officers.
