Item 5.02(b). Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

At our August 14, 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, James D. Hartman was elected to our board of directors, and effective upon Mr. Hartman's election as a director, James M. Daughton retired from our board of directors. No disagreement with the company caused in whole or in part Dr. Daughton's decision not to stand for re-election, and this transition was anticipated in the Letter to Shareholders included in our 2006 Annual Report.

A copy of our press release announcing the election of Mr. Hartman is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Hartman, 60, is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Enpath Medical, Inc. Enpath is a medical products company engaged in the designing, developing, manufacturing, and marketing of products and accessories to the cardiac rhythm management, neuromodulation, and interventional radiology markets. In addition to being Chairman of the Board, a position he has held since October 2003, Mr. Hartman was the Company's Chief Executive Officer from February 1996 until his retirement from that position on January 16, 2006; Chief Financial Officer from 1991 until May 2006; President from February 1995 through October 2003; and Executive Vice President from April 1993 until February 1995. Prior to joining Enpath in 1991, Mr. Hartman was Vice President-Finance for Viking Electric Supply, Inc., a distributor of electrical supplies and tools based in the Minneapolis, Minnesota area. Mr. Hartman holds an accounting degree from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and an M.B.A. from the University of St. Thomas.

The Board has determined that Mr. Hartman is "independent" as defined by Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards, and an "audit committee financial expert" under Item 401(h) of Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation S-K.

Mr. Hartman will receive the same compensation as our other non-employee directors as disclosed in our 2006 Proxy Statement filed June 30, 2006. There are no arrangements between Mr. Hartman and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Hartman was elected to serve as a director, nor are there any transactions to which NVE is a party and in which Mr. Hartman has a material interest.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
