PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Petroleum Development Corporation (the "Company") has determined that it is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 ("2006 Form 10-K") by March 16, 2007, without unreasonable effort and expense because it has not yet completed the preparation of its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006, as discussed below. The Company is not able to represent that it will be able to file its 2006 Form 10-K by April 2, 2007.

Due to a variety of factors, including a number of transactions occurring near or just subsequent to its year end, the Company has not yet completed its year end review process, including analysis of significant financial statement accounts, nor has management completed its assessment of internal control over financial reporting. Once the Company has completed its 2006 financial statements, its auditors will require sufficient time to complete their audit.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes
X No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes X No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As reported in the Company's Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2006, filed November 9, 2006, in July 2006, the Company sold to an unaffiliated company a portion of its undeveloped leasehold located in Grand Valley Field, Garfield County, Colorado. The proceeds from the sale were $353.6 million. The Company recorded a gain on sale of leaseholds of $328 million and a deferred gain on sales of leaseholds of $25.6 million. The gain on sale of leaseholds will significantly impact the Company's reported results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2006, as compared to its results of operations reported for the year ended December 31, 2005.
