NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

NOTE A BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for complete consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the six month period ended October 31, 2007 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ended April 30, 2008. The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto incorporated by reference in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2007.

NOTE B NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2006, the Emerging Issues Task Force reached a consensus on Issue No. 06-3 (EITF 06-3), Disclosure Requirements for Taxes Assessed by a Governmental Authority on Revenue-Producing Transactions. The consensus allows an entity to choose between two acceptable alternatives based on their accounting policies for transactions in which the entity collects taxes on behalf of a governmental authority, such as sales taxes. Under the gross method, taxes collected are accounted for as a component of sales revenue with an offsetting expense. Conversely, the net method allows a reduction to sales revenue. Entities should disclose the method selected pursuant to APB No. 22, Disclosure of Accounting Policies. If such taxes are reported gross and are significant, entities should disclose the amount of those taxes. The guidance should be applied to financial reports through retrospective application for all periods presented, if amounts are significant, for interim and annual reporting beginning May 1, 2007. The Company adopted the guidance during the first quarter of fiscal 2008 and it had no impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS 157). SFAS 157 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to GAAP guidance requiring use of fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently evaluating the expected impact of the provisions of SFAS 157 on its results of operations and its financial position.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Options for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities (SFAS 159). SFAS 159 permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The objective is to expand the use of fair value measurements in accounting for financial instruments. SFAS 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently evaluating the expected impact of the provisions of SFAS 159 on its results of operations and its financial position.

NOTE C COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

An actual valuation of inventory under the LIFO method is made only at the end of each year based on the inventory levels and costs at that time. Accordingly, interim LIFO calculations are based on management's estimates of expected year-end inventory levels and costs. Since these items are estimated, interim results are subject to the final year-end LIFO inventory valuation.

NOTE H PRODUCT WARRANTY

The Company estimates outstanding warranty costs based on the historical relationship between warranty claims and revenues. The warranty accrual is reviewed monthly to verify that it properly reflects the remaining obligation based on the anticipated expenditures over the balance of the obligation period. Adjustments are made when actual warranty claim experience differs from estimates. Warranty claims are generally made within three months of the original shipment date.

The following is a reconciliation of the Company's warranty liability:

Employer Contributions

The Company previously disclosed in its consolidated financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2007, that it expected to contribute $7.6 million to its pension plan in fiscal 2008. As of October 31, 2007, $3.4 million of contributions have been made. The Company presently anticipates contributing an additional $4.6 million to fund its pension plan in fiscal 2008 for a total of $8.0 million.

NOTE K ACCOUNTING FOR UNCERTAINTY IN INCOME TAXES

The Company adopted the provisions of FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, effective May 1, 2007. As a result of the adoption of FIN 48, the Company recognized no adjustment in the unrecognized income tax benefits that existed at April 30, 2007. On May 1, 2007, the Company had approximately $557,770 of unrecognized tax benefits accrued. Of this amount, approximately $362,551 would affect the effective tax rate if recognized.

Consistent with prior policy, the Company classifies interest on underpayments of income tax as Interest Expense and classifies penalties in connection with underpayments of tax as Other Expense. As of May 1, 2007, the Company had liabilities of $71,350 and $253,200, for interest and penalties, respectively.

The Company does not anticipate that total unrecognized tax benefits recorded as of May 1, 2007 will significantly change during the fiscal year ending April 30, 2008.

The Company is currently not under audit by any federal or state taxing authorities.

Table of Contents

NOTE L OTHER INFORMATION

The Company is involved in suits and claims in the normal course of business, including product liability and general liability claims, in addition to claims pending before the EEOC. On at least a quarterly basis, the Company consults with its legal counsel to ascertain the reasonable likelihood that such claims may result in a loss. As required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 5 (SFAS 5), the Company categorizes the various suits and claims into three categories according to their likelihood for resulting in potential loss; those that are probable (i.e., more likely than not), those that are reasonably possible, and those that are deemed to be remote. The Company accounts for these loss contingencies in accordance with SFAS 5. Where losses are deemed to be probable and estimable, accruals are made. Where losses are deemed to be reasonably possible or remote, a range of loss estimates is determined. Where no loss estimate range can be made, the Company and its counsel perform a worst case estimate. In determining these loss range estimates, the Company considers known values of similar claims and consultation with independent counsel.

The Company believes that the aggregate range of loss stemming from the various suits and asserted and unasserted claims which were deemed to be either probable or reasonably possible were not material as of October 31, 2007.

NOTE M SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On November 15, 2007, the Board of Directors approved a $.09 per share cash dividend on its common stock. The cash dividend will be paid on December 19, 2007, to shareholders of record on December 5, 2007.

Item 2.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and the related notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements, both of which are included in Part I, Item 1 of this report. The Company's critical accounting policies are included in the Company's 2007 Annual Report, which was filed as an exhibit to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2007.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains statements concerning the Company's expectations, plans, objectives, future financial performance, and other statements that are not historical facts. These statements are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In most cases, the reader can identify these forward-looking statements by words such as anticipate, estimate, forecast, expect, believe, should, could, plan, may or other similar words. Forward-looking statements contained in this Management's Discussion and Analysis are based on current expectations and our actual results may differ materially from those projected in any forward-looking statements. In addition, the Company participates in an industry that is subject to rapidly changing conditions and there are numerous factors that could cause the Company to experience a decline in sales and/or earnings. These include (1) overall industry demand at reduced levels, (2) economic weakness in a specific channel of distribution, (3) the loss of sales from specific customers due to their loss of market share, bankruptcy or switching to a competitor, (4) a sudden and significant rise in basic raw material costs, (5) a dramatic increase to the cost of diesel fuel and/or transportation related services, (6) the need to respond to price or product initiatives launched by a competitor, (7) the Company's ability to successfully implement initiatives related to increasing market share, new products, maintaining and increasing its sales force and new product displays, and (8) sales growth at a rate that outpaces the Company's ability to install new capacity. While the Company believes that these risks are manageable and will not adversely impact the long-term performance of the Company, these risks could, under certain circumstances, have a materially adverse impact on its operating results and financial condition.

Overview

American Woodmark Corporation manufactures and distributes kitchen cabinets and vanities for the remodeling and new home construction markets. Its products are sold on a national basis directly to home centers, major builders and home manufacturers, and through a network of independent dealers and distributors. At October 31, 2007, the Company operated 15 manufacturing facilities and 9 service centers across the country.

The three-month period ending October 31, 2007 was the Company's second quarter of its fiscal year that ends on April 30, 2008 (fiscal 2008). During the second quarter of fiscal 2008, the Company experienced a continuation of difficult housing market conditions that had begun during the previous fiscal year. During the second quarter of fiscal 2008, the market for remodeling and new construction spending experienced lower sales than in the prior year. In new construction, housing starts were down 25% on a calendar year-to-date basis through October 2007. In remodeling, indicators such as the year-to-date sales of existing homes were down 10% and comparable store sales reported by the large home centers continued to be negative during the same year-to-date period. In addition, uncertainty concerning credit conditions continued to persist as banks incurred large mortgage-related asset write-downs. Finally, two of the Company's new construction customers filed for bankruptcy protection at the conclusion of the second quarter of fiscal 2008, while several other customers experienced difficult financial results. The Company believes these conditions, as well as the heavy media coverage they have received, combined to further erode consumer confidence relative to housing and made it more difficult to obtain residential mortgage financing.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN WOODMARK CORP - Form 10-Q

Despite the present housing market downturn, the Company believes that the long-term fundamentals for the American housing industry remain strong, based upon strong employment, continued overall economic growth, relatively low interest rates, continued population growth and other favorable demographic trends. Based upon this belief, the Company has continued to maintain its strategy of investing to improve its operations and its capabilities to best service its customers. The Company remains focused on continuing to gain market share and has continued to invest in developing and launching new products, maintaining and increasing its sales force, and increasing its new product displays and related marketing collateral deployed at new customers in its new construction channel.

The Company believes that it has been successful in gaining market share during fiscal 2008. The Company's remodeling sales declined by approximately 10% in the first half of fiscal 2008 as compared with the corresponding period of fiscal 2007. The Company believes that the magnitude of this decline was lower than the sales declines experienced by its remodeling customers. The Company's new construction sales for the second quarter declined nearly 25% as compared with the comparable period of fiscal 2007. The magnitude of the Company's decline was slightly less than the magnitude of the reduction in housing starts, and the Company experienced a sequential increase in its new construction sales for the second consecutive quarter, even as new construction starts continued to decline.

The Company's gross margin rate for the second quarter of fiscal 2008 was 17.3%, down from 20.3% in the second quarter of fiscal 2007. The reduction in the Company's gross margin rate was driven by the impact of inefficiencies in labor and overhead costs that were caused by a combination of lower sales volumes, new product launches, higher material costs and rising fuel costs. These inefficiencies more than offset the favorable impact from the Company's completed transition out of certain low-margin products, which improved the Company's sales mix and reduced materials and freight costs in relation to sales.

Table of Contents

Net income for the second quarter of fiscal 2008 was $1.2 million, compared with $9.2 million during the second quarter of fiscal 2007.

Net Sales. Net sales were $160.2 million for the second quarter of fiscal 2008, a decrease of 24% as compared with the second quarter of fiscal 2007, while the Company's core product sales (defined as all products excluding the transitioned low-margin products) declined by 17% as compared with the second quarter of fiscal 2007. For the first six months of fiscal 2008, net sales were $326.3 million, reflecting a decrease of 25% as compared with the same period of fiscal 2007. Overall unit volume for the three and six-month periods ended October 31, 2007 decreased by 32% and 34%, respectively, driven by the completion of the Company's previously announced transition out of certain high volume low-margin products, as well as by reduced market demand for the Company's core products. Average revenue per unit increased 12% and 15% during the three and six-month periods ended October 31, 2007, respectively, driven primarily by the completion of the aforementioned low-margin products sales transition, and the resulting improvements in the Company's sales mix.

Gross Profit. Gross profit margin for the second quarter of fiscal 2008 was 17.3%, as compared with 20.3% for the same period of fiscal 2007. Gross profit margin was 19.0% for the first half of fiscal 2008, as compared with 21.2% in the first half of fiscal 2007. Labor and overhead costs increased by a combined 5.0% of sales in the second quarter of fiscal 2008 and by 4.6% of sales in the first half of fiscal 2008 as compared with the comparable prior year periods, due to inefficiencies stemming from the combined impact of reduced core sales levels, new product launches and higher medical costs. Gross margin was also adversely impacted by rising fuel costs during the three and six-month periods ended October 31, 2007.

The Company completed its transition out of certain low-margin products in February 2007. The impact of margin favorability from the improved sales mix that resulted from this transition, as well as improved efficiencies in lumber yields and lumber prices during both the three and six-month periods ended October 31, 2007, was more than offset by the adverse impact of the factors described above.

Selling and Marketing Expenses. Selling and marketing expenses for the second quarter of fiscal 2008 were $18.5 million or 11.6% of sales compared to $17.9 million or 8.5% of sales for the same period in fiscal 2007. For the first six months of fiscal 2008, selling and marketing costs were $38.7 million, or 11.9% of net sales, compared with $35.8 million, or 8.3% of net sales for the same period of fiscal 2007. The increase as a percent of sales during fiscal 2008 was due primarily to additional spending to grow market share, including increases related to the launch of new products, and an increase in collateral literature and promotional displays for new customers in the new construction channel, as well as to the reduced sales base.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses for the second quarter of fiscal 2008 were $7.9 million or 4.9% of sales compared to $10.6 million or 5.0% of sales for the same period in fiscal 2007. For the first six months of fiscal 2008, general and administrative costs were $14.5 million, or 4.5% of net sales, compared with $20.6 million, or 4.7% of net sales for the same period of fiscal 2007. The reductions in fiscal 2008 were due primarily to reduced costs associated with the Company's pay-for-performance employee incentive plans, and the reversal in the first quarter of fiscal 2008 of a $0.5 million provision for potential loss on the receivables from one of the Company's new construction customers whose financial situation became more stable. These reductions were partially offset by the establishment of an additional $1.5 million provision for potential loss made during the second quarter of fiscal 2008 in recognition of the bankruptcy of two of the Company's new construction customers, as well as the higher level of perceived risk of non-payment from other new construction customers.

Table of Contents

Interest Expense. Interest expense for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2008 was $192 thousand and $383 thousand, respectively, which represented declines of 25% from the comparable periods of fiscal 2007. These declines were driven by a reduced level of outstanding indebtedness and the applicable interest rates, as well as a slightly higher amount of capitalized interest cost than in the prior fiscal year.

Effective Income Tax Rates. The Company's effective income tax rates for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal year 2008 were 31.2% and 34.9%, respectively, as compared with 38.0% in both comparable periods of fiscal 2007. The decreases in the effective tax rate were a result of credits from the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, which allows for a deduction based on qualified domestic production activities, and a larger impact of tax-exempt interest income.

Outlook. The Company expects the continuing impact of tighter credit conditions and falling real estate prices will cause the remodeling and new construction markets to remain subdued until these conditions are resolved. The Company expects that it will continue to gain market share throughout fiscal 2008, causing its sales to decline at a lower rate than the overall market. The Company expects that its core sales will decline in a range of 10% to 12% as compared with fiscal 2007, and that its total sales, inclusive of the transition impact of the low-margin products which were sold in fiscal year 2007, will decline in a range of 14% to 18% as compared with fiscal 2007.

The Company has been working aggressively to improve the issues which impacted labor productivity during the second quarter of fiscal 2008 and now expects labor costs to exceed previously expected levels, but show gradual improvement over the next two quarters. The Company continues to monitor fuel costs and will consider pricing actions if market conditions persist.

Considering the Company's sales outlook and these increased costs, the Company has reduced its forecast of gross margin for the fiscal year to approximately 18.5%, which includes a reduction of approximately 50 basis points for the change in the form of the Company's sales promotion reimbursements.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

On October 31, 2007, the Company's cash and cash equivalents totaled $46.2 million, down from $58.1 million at April 30, 2007. At October 31, 2007, total short-term and long-term debt was $27.5 million, down slightly from its balance at April 30, 2007. Long-term debt to capital was 10.9% and 10.6% at October 31, 2007 and April 30, 2007, respectively.

The Company's main source of liquidity is cash generated from operating activities consisting of net earnings adjusted for non-cash operating items, primarily depreciation, amortization and non-cash stock-based compensation expense, and changes in operating assets and liabilities such as receivables, inventories, and payables.

Cash provided by operating activities in the first half of fiscal 2008 was $18.8 million, compared with $52.7 million in the comparable period of fiscal 2007. The reduction in cash provided from operations was primarily attributable to a decrease in net income of $16.3 million, combined with the collective reduction in cash provided by changes in deferred taxes and operating assets and liabilities, which generated $6.1 million in cash in the first half of fiscal 2007, and used $10.2 million of cash in the first half of fiscal 2008. Cash provided by changes in operating assets and liabilities was more favorable in the first half of fiscal 2007 due to the transition of the low-margin products, which drove reductions of both accounts receivable and inventory.

The Company's primary investing activities are capital expenditures and investments in promotional displays. Net cash used by investing activities in the first half of fiscal 2008 was $10.6 million, which was in line with the prior year. Additions to property, plant, and equipment for the first half of fiscal 2008 were $5.0 million, compared with $4.4 million in the first half of fiscal 2007. The property, plant, and equipment additions made in both periods did not reflect any new plant construction activities. The Company's investment in promotional displays for the first half of fiscal 2008 was $5.6 million, compared with $6.2 million in the first half of fiscal 2007. The Company expects its investments in capital expenditures and promotional displays for fiscal 2008 will approximate the total invested in fiscal 2007.

During the first half of fiscal 2008, net cash used by financing activities was $20.1 million, compared with net cash used in the comparable period of fiscal 2007 of $21.5 million. The primary use of cash in both periods related to the Company's repurchase of its common stock in the amounts of $18.0 million and $29.8 million in the first halves of fiscal 2008 and fiscal 2007, respectively. Additionally, proceeds from the exercise of stock options declined by $9.1 million in the first half of fiscal 2008, while dividends paid increased by $0.7 million.

The Company repurchased $17.8 million of its common stock during the first half of fiscal 2008 and had $102.5 million of remaining stock repurchases authorized by its Board of Directors as of October 31, 2007. See Part II, Item 2 for a table summarizing stock repurchases in the quarter ended October 31, 2007, and the approximate dollar value of shares that may be repurchased under the program.

Cash flow from operations combined with accumulated cash on hand and available borrowing capacity on the Company's $35 million line of credit, of which there were no borrowings during fiscal 2007 and 2008, is expected to be more than sufficient to meet forecasted working capital requirements, service existing debt obligations, and fund capital expenditures for the remainder of fiscal 2008.

Dividends Declared

On November 15, 2007, the Board of Directors approved a $.09 per share cash dividend on its common stock. The cash dividend will be paid on December 19, 2007, to shareholders of record on December 5, 2007.

Seasonal and Inflationary Factors

The Company's business has historically been subject to seasonal influences, with higher sales typically realized in the second and fourth fiscal quarters.

The costs of the Company's products are subject to inflationary pressures and commodity price fluctuations. The Company has generally been able over time to recover the effects of inflation and commodity price fluctuations through sales price increases.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. There have been no significant changes to the Company's critical accounting policies as disclosed in the Company's 2007 Annual Report, which was filed as an exhibit to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2007.
