odd-lot programs, to purchase such shares for eligible shareowners and administer the program. Participants will pay a fee of $3 per share up to a maximum of $35 per account. Shares will be bought or sold in the market through a designated broker. Those eligible will be notified by mail and will have until December 31, 2002 to participate.

Navistar International Corporation (NYSE: NAV) is the parent company of International Truck and Engine Corporation, a leading producer of mid-range diesel engines, medium trucks, heavy trucks, severe duty trucks and a provider of parts and service sold under the International brand. IC Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary, produces school buses. The company also is a private label designer and manufacturer of diesel engines for pickup truck, van and SUV markets. Additionally, through a joint venture with Ford Motor Company, Navistar will build medium commercial trucks and currently sells truck and diesel engine services parts. International Truck and Engine has the broadest distribution network in the industry. Financing for customers is provided through a wholly owned subsidiary. Additional information can be found on the company's website at www.nav-international.com
