Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Recent changes in U.S. tax laws are affecting nonqualified deferred compensation plans for certain companies, including Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. (the "Company"). The changes prohibit many company employees from being able to continue to defer income to such plans after January 1, 2009. Several of the Company's deferred compensation programs, including the Non Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan, the Shipboard Seniority Retirement Plan and the Richard D. Fain Trust Agreement are affected by these changes, and the plans have been amended accordingly.

One of the changes approved by the Compensation Committee is an amendment to Richard D. Fain's employment agreement to provide that all quarterly distributions of shares of Company common stock commencing after January 1, 2009, which were previously required to be paid into the trust for Mr. Fain's benefit, will instead be paid directly to Mr. Fain. The Compensation Committee also agreed to modify the trust to provide for the trustee to distribute to Mr. Fain on January 12, 2009 the assets currently in the trust. These distributions will be taxable to Mr. Fain upon receipt, and Mr. Fain may sell some of the distributed shares of Company stock to pay all or a portion of this tax.

Copies of the amendment to Mr. Fain's Employment Agreement and the amendment to the Trust Agreement reflecting the above described changes are attached as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2, respectively to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
