The Transition Update
No. 3, June 11, 2002

In This Issue:

- Trigon and Anthem set dates for shareholder meetings, record dates
- Questions and answers about the transition
- Transition fun facts

Shareholder Meeting Dates, Record Dates Set

Anthem and Trigon have each scheduled special shareholders meetings to be held on July 23, 2002, to consider certain approvals in connection with the proposed merger of the two companies. Anthem's meeting will be held at its corporate offices at 120 Monument Circle in Indianapolis at 10 a.m. local time. Trigon's meeting will be held at its corporate offices at 2015 Staples Mill Road in Richmond at 11 a.m. local time.

The record date set for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the meetings was also announced. Both companies have set their record dates as of the close of business on June 6, 2002.

In addition to certain approvals by each company's shareholders, the merger and related transactions are subject to certain regulatory and other approvals, including those by the antitrust division of the U.S. Department of Justice, the Virginia Bureau of Insurance (Virginia State Corporation Commission) and the Blue Cross Blue Shield Association. It is anticipated that the merger will close during the third quarter of this year.

Questions & Answers

An important function of The Transition Update is to answer questions submitted from people at Trigon and Anthem. We anticipate getting a wide variety of questions, some that apply to Trigon only, some that are geared toward Anthem and others that apply to both. Therefore, the Questions & Answers section of the Update will reflect those questions that are relevant to the given audience.

No Anthem questions this week.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995

This newsletter contains certain forward-looking information about Anthem, Inc. (Anthem) and the combined company after completion of the transactions that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. Words such as "expect(s)", "feel(s)", "believe(s)", "will", "may", "anticipate(s)" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements include, but are not limited to, financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions; statements regarding plans, objectives and expectations with respect to future operations, products and services; and statements regarding future performance. Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the control of Anthem, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, the forward-looking information and statements. These risks and uncertainties include: those discussed and identified in public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) made by Anthem; trends in health care costs and utilization rates; our ability to secure sufficient premium rate increases; competitor pricing below market trends of increasing costs; increased government regulation of health benefits and managed care; significant acquisitions or divestitures by major competitors; introduction and utilization of new prescription drugs and technology; a downgrade in our financial strength ratings; litigation targeted at health benefits companies; our ability to contract with providers consistent with past practice; our ability to consummate Anthem's acquisition of Trigon Healthcare, Inc. (Trigon), to achieve expected synergies and operating efficiencies in the Trigon acquisition and to successfully integrate our operations; our expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the transactions and the value of the transaction consideration; and general economic downturns. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Anthem does not undertake any
