Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On June 5, 2007, CorVel Corporation (the Company) issued a press release announcing the acquisition of The Schaffer Companies, Ltd., a Baltimore, Maryland based provider of integrated medical management, claims processing and technology services for workers compensation clients. The acquisition closed on June 1, 2007. A copy of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit No. 99.1.

The information contained in this report and in the exhibit attached to this report is being furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section, or incorporated by reference in any filing under the Exchange Act or the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This report contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements can often be identified by words such as anticipates, expects, intends, plans, predicts, believes, seeks, estimates, may, will, should, continue, ongoing, similar expressions, and variations or negatives of these words. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's current expectations, estimates and projections about its industry, management's beliefs, and certain assumptions made by the Company, all of which are subject to change. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future results and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially and adversely from those expressed in any forward-looking statement.

The risks and uncertainties referred to above include, but are not limited to, risks associated with the Company's ability to release new software when planned, the Company's ability to achieve anticipated results, the success of the Company's software and services in improving outcomes and savings for its customers, the Company's ability to file its Form 10-K, and other factors described in the Company's annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The forward-looking statements in this report speak only as of the date they are made. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statement for any reason.
